'SPECULATOR' CHARMED LOCAL MEN

Businessman Agreed To Be Walter's Driver

EMPIRE BUILDER 'DOING FINE' IN JAIL

A number of prominent local businessmen fell prey to the charms of Charles Edward Walters, the smooth-talking "speculator" who spent two weeks in this area trying to sell shares in the oil empire he claimed to have found in the Landis Store area.

Some were on the verge of giving him $1000 for a share. Others were considering investing.

Walters, meanwhile, is still behind bars at the county prison, awaiting the results of attempts on the part of Ohio authorities to have him extradited.

"He's a great talker," a guard at the prison said Monday

Month of May Was Noted for High Rainfall

Memorial Day weekend, its activity slowed by gloom and finally ended by a downpour Monday at 5:30 p. m., will give way to fair skies and warmer weather today.

As May draws to an end, the accumulation of rain has mounted to an unusually high 6.03 inches after the .18 which fell late Monday.

No recent year has seen a May with so much rain, and only May, 1958, of the last five years has experienced

Car Shredded By Violent Crash

This scene of utter violence and death reflected the Pottstown area's contribution to the Memorial Day highway holocaust. The mangled remains of a car which was carrying five Philadelphia youths from Lakeview park toward Route 422 are strewn across Township Line road. One of the three occupants killed in this car lies on the bare floorboards. The other auto was carrying four New Jerseyites. A woman passenger pinned in the front of this car was the fourth victim. Of the five survivors, one is in serious condition and another is critical.

Three Boys, Woman Die in Wreckage

Victims Include Two Brothers; Force of Impact Mangles Vehicle

Four persons were killed and five were injured in a skidding crash Monday evening on Township Line road, half a mile south of Limerick.

Three Philadelphia youths returning from a Memorial Day outing at Lakeview park in nearby Royersford, and a young New Jersey woman, were killed.

Dead were two brothers, Harry and Joseph Kennedy, aged 20 and 18, respectively; Richard Leidy, 19 who is believed to have been the driver of one of the cars; and Viola Adams, between 30 and 35 years of age, of Gloucester, N. J.

The accident occurred on a straight but wet road shortly after 6:30 p.m.

A motorist traveling behind the Philadelphia youths whom police declined to identify, said the Philadelphia auto was traveling at "about 30 or 35 miles per hour" when the driver apparently tried to apply his breaks.

THE AUTO swung sideways in the road, police said, apparently crowding the oncoming New Jersey auto. Corporal Richard Mince, of the Jeffersonville barracks, said the New Jersey car could not leave the road because of a deep ditch immediately beyond the shoulder.

The front of the New Jersey car and the left front side of the Philadelphia auto were the im-

Despite Depression Class Has Made It

By BEN TEPLITZ
(Mercury Staff Writer)

There's an old quip that goes: "Whether you are rich or poor—it's good to have money."

Pottstown High school's class of 1935 was poor and there was no paradox about the matter. The 180 boys and girls in that class couldn't finance a yearbook.

Merchants in and around the borough were of no help with advertising revenue. A depression was clobbering the Pottstown economy as Pomp and Circumstance was played for graduates 25 years ago.

All but five of that class lives today, and about half the group still resides in this area. On June 11 they will kick their heels at the biggest reunion they've had in a quarter century.

ONE HUNDRED-SIXTY reservations are made and more are expected, said Mrs. Adeline (Shaner) Measley, 261 Chestnut street.

Since February, Mrs. Measley has led a group in contacting old classmates. One story in The Mercury's All Around The Town column brought 20 leads in tracking classmates for Mrs. Albert Hartman, 75 West Fifth street.

"Without a doubt, high school graduates of 1960 will earn three to four times as much as I did in 1935," said Cunningham.

JULES O'DELL, 245 Mervine street, recalled he earned $11 for 48 hours work after graduation.

"During high school I earned $3 a week, so I thought my new salary was pretty decent. Not many high school graduates earned more than $11 a week in

$130 in Prizes Await Winner Of New Contest

There must be a winner!

That is a primary rule of the temperature guessing contest being sponsored by The Mercury in co-operation with 12 area businesses.

The contest offers prizes totaling $130 for the person correctly guessing the highest temperature during June, July and August.

The guess is to pinpoint the temperature by month, day, hour and minute and submit it to The Mercury.

Temperatures will be determined according to the United States Weather Bureau observer in Pottstown. Anyone may participate except The Mercury employes and their immediate families.

Prizes include: an electric table lamp, two $10 savings accounts at local banks, a timer for electric appliances, an automatic torch, a picnic table and bench set, and merchandise certificates from several stores with a total value of $55.

Mine Superintendent Will Address Lions

John P. Bingham, superintendent of the Grace Iron Mines at Elverson, will be the featured speaker tonight at the weekly meeting of the Lions club.

Bingham will show slides and speak on surface and underground operations of the Grace mines.

The meeting will be at 6:30 o'clock at Brookside Country club. Carroll Harp, president, will be in charge.

11 ARRESTED IN WEEKEND MUGGINGS

Police Arrest Five Other Suspects

Five Pottstown teen-agers—part of a gang that attacked nine other youths in and around the borough—were arrested Monday.

The arrests brought to 11 the number of teen-agers rounded up in connection with the muggings Saturday night. The other six were apprehended in a stolen car shortly before midnight Saturday.

Picked up at their homes Monday morning at 10 o'clock were Robert Smith, 16, of 37 Hemlock row; Joseph Frederick, 17, of 875 Willow street and William Andrews, 14, of Prince street.

The other two surrendered to police at borough hall at 8 p.m. They are Grover Henderson, 16, of T-4 Ryan street, Penn Village and Rocco Kovatto, 71 Beech street.

ALL FIVE were held at borough hall overnight. They'll be taken to Montgomery hall, Norristown, this morning to await action by county juvenile officials.

Smith, Frederick and Andrews were arrested by Detective John J. Kirlin and State Trooper Thomas Cuff of the Jeffersonville barracks.

HURT IN FALL

Samuel Amhalt, 10, of 840 North Washington street, suffered a cut of the left thigh Sunday when he fell down a flight of cellar steps. The boy was treated at Pottstown hospital, where he was discharged after four stitches were used to close the wound.

Civic Observances Mark Memorial Day

Pottstown's Memorial Day, 1960, passed into history in a rainstorm Monday night, after threatening skies during the day thinned activity everywhere in the area.

But Memorial services for the borough's war dead, the annual parade, personal remembrances, picnics and swimming all had a place, and were conducted with the contrasts of solemnity and frivolity, as befit the traditional holiday.

Catholics from all borough parishes joined in the first field mass ever conducted here, Monday morning between 11 o'clock and noon.

The Very Rev. Msgr. John J. Macko, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, celebrated the mass at St. John's cemetery, North Hanover street.

VETERANS organizations kicked off the day's ceremonies with the annual Memorial Day parade and services.

The weather was anything but nice. Grey, gloomy skies didn't spill the rain until 5:30 p. m., but the overcast kept the public on pins and needles all day.

Temperatures remained ten degrees below normal, but nearly 700 persons bathed at French Creek and Green Lane parks.

The Pottstown area accident toll climbed to six lives lost on the highway—nearly a third of the 19 highway deaths in the State.

PARTICIPATING in the annual services were the George A. Amole post 47 of the American Legion, the Harriet L. Kulp American Legion post, Veterans of Foreign Wars post 780, Jewish War Veterans, Company C of the National Guard Battery

PRISON GUARD ADMITS DOPE SMUGGLING

Narcotics Delivered To Graterford Inmates

A correction officer at Graterford prison Sunday was arrested for smuggling narcotics to inmates.

James Sallat, Rahns hotel, admitted taking contraband pills into Graterford's confines and of sneaking out prisoners' letters. He told prison officials he didn't make a cent on the deal, but continued smuggling "to do the inmates a favor."

Sallat said he performed his undercover work a month. Jeffersonville State troopers and prison au-

Man Pleads Guilty To Assault Charge

James King, 601 Water street, surrendered to borough police Monday evening and pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated assault and battery brought against him by Alexander Little, Hotel James.

Little was stabbed in the lower right ribs early Sunday during an alley fight. The fight took place in the vicinity of the 700 block of Beech and Walnut streets. He was in satisfactory condition at Memorial hospital Monday night.

King was released in $500 bail by Justice of the Peace Merritt Wien to await another hearing pending Little's release from the hospital.

May Death Toll Soars to 13

The normally "merry month of May" will be remembered for having probably the ghastliest toll of traffic deaths in the history of this area.

The tally of highway fatalities soared Monday to 13. A recounting of the month's gruesome score is:

May 2. One dead on Route 422 near Limerick.

May 6. Three dead on Route 83 near Spring City.

May 22. Three dead on Route 83 near Spring City.

May 28. Two dead on Route 422, Exeter township.

May 30. Four dead on Township Line road, Limerick.

Route 83 Boasts Accident Free Holiday Weekend

Thorndale State police reported Sunday that there were no accidents on Route 83 over the Memorial holiday weekend.

The highway between Park road in East Vincent township and the junction of Routes 23 and 83 in East Pikeland township is considered the most dangerous stretch of highway in the Pottstown area.

Six persons have perished in automobile accidents on this two mile stretch during the past four weeks.

The most recent tragedy was early May 22 when two cars collided claiming the lives of three young persons.

Police said usually only two cars patrol the highway but during most of the weekend four cars were on duty with two men in each car.

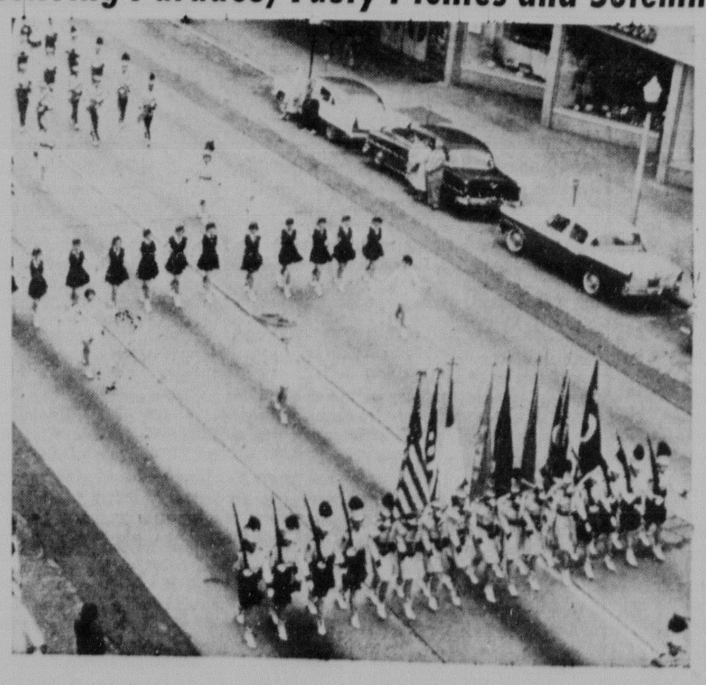
Stirring Parades, Tasty Picnics and Solemn Memories Were All Part of Memorial Day 1960



Pottstown High school's nationally honored band, color guard, twirlers and drill team added imposing color and excitement to the annual Memorial Day parade in Pottstown Monday. Part of a contingent of 600 marchers which paraded before sparse crowds, the band went on to Pottstown East End cemetery to take part in activities honoring Pottstown's dead from five wars and conflicts.

Other bands in the parade were from the Pottstown Junior High school and Owen J. Roberts Junior Senior High school.

Memorial Day finds families traveling far and wide to gather for an outdoor repast. In the case of the Schiel family, Pottstown was the meeting place, and Sunnybrook park was the dining room. At the left, Mrs. Shirley Schiel, 67 North Evans street, pours a cup of soda for her son, John, 3. Sitting between his mother and brother is William, 8. Their father, William, is at the left in the rear, talking to brother Thomas Schiel, Pottstown Route 18. To the right of Thomas is another brother, Francis, an Airman second class with the U.S. Navy in Norfolk, Va. Next to Francis is his wife Phyllis, holding their daughter, Kathy. The little chap at the table is Thomas Schiel Jr. His mother, Lucille, is preparing some grub at the front of the picture while her other son, Joseph, looks on.

Memorial Day gave Pottstonians a chance to decorate the graves of loved ones with flowers and plants in token of their lifelong remembrances. Even chill, clouds and the threat of rain failed to keep thousands of persons from visiting area cemeteries and memorial parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Highley, 23 West Sixth street, visited the grave of Mrs. Highley's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Missimer, at the Pottstown East End cemetery. By nightfall, the lawns of the various cemeteries assumed the look of vast flower beds, set off by the rows of American flags honoring war dead.

U.S., Allies 'Warned'

Malinovsky Alerts Missile Forces For Strikes on Offending Bases

MOSCOW (AP)—Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky said Monday he has ordered rocket strikes at the takeoff base of any foreign plane that henceforth violates air space of the Soviet Union or its Communist partners in this H-bomb era.

"The action would be fully justified," the Soviet defense minister declared in a speech in the Kremlin's Grand Palace, "because we do not know what the intruder plane may carry. It may well be a hydrogen bomb."

"This (rocket fire) would be the best way to denounce the aggressive policy of the United States, to rap the aggressor on the knuckles," he said.

The husky, broad-shouldered marshal, a constant companion of Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the Paris summit collapse, drew cheers at a meeting of Communist labor shock workers that was attended by Khrushchev and other government and party leaders.

Malinovsky's warning, which he said was not a threat, was aimed at the United States and its Allies in three defense alliances—the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, and the Central Treaty Organization — the old Baghdad Pact.

Modern war "would mean a great calamity for the peoples, a great loss of life and the destruction of all they created, but it cannot be warded off by cowardice," he said.

The announcement that he had sent the order to the commander in chief of rocket forces crystallized previous Soviet declarations that there would be retaliation against foreign bases involved in such incidents as U.S. pilot Francis G. Powers' ill-fated U2 reconnaissance flight over the Soviet Union.

Malinovsky reiterated that Soviet antiaircraft rockets now can reach the ceiling of any plane the United States sends over, regardless of how high it flies.

"As you see, gentlemen," he said, "we sometimes regard it as possible to reveal some of our secrets."

The marshal charged that the Pentagon distorted the truth in alleging that the Powers plane, instead of being felled by a rocket from an altitude of more than 12 miles as Khrushchev proclaimed, was shot down by Soviet artillery while only five or six miles up.

Malinovsky asserted that the Soviet Union had never deliberately violated the air space of any other nation.

"If we infringed on foreign frontiers unintentionally we, like honest people, apologized and punished those guilty," he said.

The time has passed, he said, when "cold war exponents, seeking to resolve international problems from positions of strength, can hope in an emergency to rest quietly behind the ocean, having others do their dangerous job."

"The Soviet Union has everything needed for a fitting blow at the satellites and at the leader, no matter behind which seas and oceans they hide," he said.

Malinovsky said this includes radio equipment that can determine precisely where a plane has taken off, follow the route of its flight and locate its landing field, which means "no one will succeed in evading responsibility."

Pakistan has rejected a Soviet charge that Powers launched his May Day flight from a Pakistani base at Peshawar. Norway has announced it had no knowledge of what the Soviets called Powers' plan to land at Bodo, a northern Norwegian base.

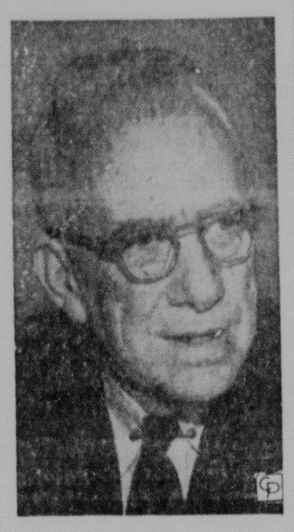
Senator Aiken Calls Red Minister 'Plain Darn Fool' for Statement

WASHINGTON (AP)—"It seems that the war party has come back into power," Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt) said Monday after a new Soviet threat to blast the home base of any plane that violates Soviet air space.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) agreed with Aiken that the missile threat, made in a speech by



SEN. GEORGE D. AIKEN

Soviet Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky, may have grave implications.

"I would rather take his warning at face value than to underestimate what he says," Mansfield told a reporter.

There was no immediate comment from the State Department.

One unofficial reaction was that Malinovsky's speech was a logical followup to repeated warnings by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that the Soviets would strike at bases used to launch any future spy planes.

Aiken said Malinovsky "must be a plain darn fool" to make the kind of a statement he uttered Monday.

If the marshal's orders were followed to the letter, Aiken said, Soviet rockets would attack even if an alien plane wandered a short distance into Soviet space by accident.

Further, Aiken said, the Malinovsky order doesn't take into account that the Soviets might guess wrong about the takeoff base of any intruding planes.

"The first rocket to fall on the soil of our allies would be the signal for a rain of rockets on Russia," Aiken added bluntly.

Mansfield viewed the new Soviet move as still another in a long series of attempts by the Kremlin "to break down the complex of (Western allied) bases ringing the Soviet Union." He said such foreign bases "would be our first line of defense in event of war."

As a result of the U2 incident, Mansfield said, the Soviet objective in this direction "may have been achieved in part."

He stressed he did not mean the United States might lose these bases altogether. But he said the nations in which they are located would be more careful to see to it that "they don't become targets for warnings like the warnings given Norway and Pakistan."

Gen. Roosevelt Widow Is Dead At Age of 70

OYSTER BAY, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., 70, daughter-in-law of President Theodore Roosevelt and prominent welfare worker for many years, died at her home Sunday night.

Mrs. Roosevelt, the widow of Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., died of natural causes at her home near Sagamore Hill, the Long Island family home of the 26th president, now a national shrine.

The former Eleanor B. Alexander, Mrs. Roosevelt led an active life in civic work and was an author and lecturer. Her memoirs, "Day Before Yesterday," were published in 1959.

She was an assistant director of leave areas for American troops in France in World War I and was cited by Gen. John J. Pershing for her work. In World War II, she won high honors for her efforts in recruiting for the Women's Army Corps and in Red Cross work.

Her husband became ill in France shortly after the Normandy invasion and died of exhaustion. A son, Capt. Quentin Roosevelt, died three years later in an airliner crash in the Far East.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. William McMillan of Baltimore; sons Theodore Roosevelt III of Philadelphia and Cornelius V. S. Roosevelt of Washington; and six grandchildren.

Eichmann Step-Brother Refuses to Defend

LINZ, Austria (AP) — Adolf Eichmann's step-brother, attorney Robert Eichmann said Monday he would not defend the former Nazi official at his trial in Israel on charges of murdering six million Jews.

The lawyer told newsmen, he has not been asked to represent Eichmann, but that if he were, "I would have to decline for personal reasons which I do not want to name."

Robert Eichmann had said earlier that despite qualms of conscience, he would not be able to reject a request to serve as Eichmann's attorney.

TURK EX-BOSS TAKES LIFE IN PRISON LEAP

'Evil Genius' Was Blamed for Bloodshed

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Namik Gedik, iron-fisted Turkish interior minister and police boss in the deposed Menderes' government, shouted "Praise God" and leaped from his prison quarters to his death Monday.

The 49-year-old Gedik was often called the "evil genius" in the regime of the imprisoned ex-Premier Adnan Menderes.

Gedik plunged through a double-glass window of the detention center at the Turkish army war college to a paved courtyard four stories below.

He was the first high-ranking casualty of the army coup that overthrew the 10-year strong-handed rule of Menderes Friday.

Gedik left behind a letter to his wife saying, "I am leaving on a long journey. I do not believe I shall ever return. I embrace you with love."

The reference to a long journey could be taken two ways—death or transfer to a Marmara Sea Island.

Brig. Gen. Refik Tulga, military governor of Istanbul, said a number of Menderes' aides have been airlifted from the war college detention quarters to Yessi Ada, an isolated Turkish naval base island 225 miles northwest of Ankara in the Sea of Marmara.

Newsmen were allowed to interview one of the prisoners about Gedik's suicide. Ethem Menderes, the former defense minister (who is no relation to the former premier), appeared smoothly dressed in a brown business suit but seemed worn out.

He said Gedik was so highly distraught that Ethem Menderes was asked to share his room and try to calm him down.

Gedik rose from his cot shortly after midnight, diverted the attention of a cadet guard by asking him to leave to get some paper, shouted "Ya Allah" (Praise God) as he dived.

The bloodshed in student demonstrations against Menderes—in which six persons were killed and more than 100 injured by unofficial count—was attributed to Gedik's harsh police methods. He was considered one of the Premier's most trusted advisers.

Boris Pasternak, Noted Author, Dies in Sleep

MOSCOW (AP) — Boris Pasternak, noted Russian poet, author of the controversial novel "Dr. Zhivago" and winner of the 1958 Nobel Prize for literature, died in his sleep Monday night, family friends reported Tuesday. He was 70.

As a result of the novel—never published in the Soviet Union but a best seller in Western countries Pasternak was the center of world wide uproar over freedom of thought and writing practices. The novel was judged both for literary merit and insights into Communist society.

The last two years of his life were dogged by the storm of Soviet disapproval of his novel that extended from Premier Nikita Khrushchev down through the rank and file of Soviet writers.

The old novelist, poet and translator became ill on May 1 at his quiet house at Peredelkino, a writer's colony 20 miles outside Moscow at the edge of a beautiful forest.

Along with a heart ailment he suffered from lung cancer, stomach bleeding and other infirmities.

For several days he had roused only briefly from a coma, and the friend said he died at 11:30 Monday night.

Chile Begins Cleanup

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — With help pouring in from many parts of the world, Chile Monday began the mammoth task of rebuilding cities and towns devastated by more than a week of quakes and tidal waves.

Work units of troops and civilians already were removing mountains of debris in the major disaster areas of southern Chile.

Government officials said the reconstruction task will take years in Puerto Montt, Concepcion and other cities nearly demolished by quakes.

Beer Bottle Cap Sole Discovery In Search for Buried Treasure

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) —If you want to hunt for hidden treasure, Nibe in Denmark is the place to go. Not much treasure, but it's hidden real good.

There, in a field, under less than two feet of ground, lie five chests, one containing 1,000 kroner—$115—and four containing 50 kroner each, in addition to bottles of excellent Danish beer. At least the stuff had ought to be there; somebody put it there.

Last Wednesday night a group of citizens, under cover of a smoke screen laid by the Home Guard, buried the chests and the beer in the field to raise money for charity.

Next day, 85 people paid a fee for admission to the field and the right to dig. At nightfall, all the digging had produced was sweat.

Next day, the committee members had a try at it. They knew exactly where they had dug the stuff in. Or at least they thought they knew. But they couldn't locate even one beer.

Guards were stationed around the field at night to prevent unauthorized digging and last Saturday the people with tickets, plus the committee, went to work again. There was more sweat; otherwise nothing.

A Home Guard platoon with a mine detector was called in by red - faced committee members. The equipment clicked right away and they dug up one beer bottle cap—without bottle.

The Home Guard gave it up and an appeal went out to the army for an expert team with mine detectors. The army will be there Tuesday.

Until then, there is free-for-all digging at the Nibe field. All Denmark watched it on television.

The farmer who owns the field is the only real happy person involved in the mystery.

"I have about the best treated soil in Denmark," he said. "I think I could grow orchids in it."

Memorial Day Weekend Death Record Is Tallied

DEATH LOG

Traffic	338
Boating	46
Drownings	66
Miscellaneous	73
Totals	523

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's over-all accidental death toll for the Memorial Day weekend set a record Monday night while traffic fatalities rocketed toward a grim record for the three-day holiday.

A spokesman for the National Safety Council said it appeared almost certain that the final traffic toll for the 78-hour period would surpass the record of 371 set in the three-day holiday of 1958.

The record for over-all accidental deaths during a three-day Memorial holiday was cracked with several hours of the weekend yet to run.

The old record of 504 was set in 1947. Over-all accident toll includes traffic fatalities, deaths from boating, drownings and deaths for miscellaneous accidents.

As the traffic fatalities spurted, the National Safety Council made a last-minute plea for more care.

A spokesman said only a drastic drop in the death rate could prevent a record toll and added: "We appeal to motorists to exert extreme care and patience."

The council, anticipating the heavy flow of traffic, has estimated that 375 persons could die in the period from 6 p.m. (local time) Friday to midnight Monday.

Multiple-fatal accidents contributed to the rising toll. Six persons died in a single crash near Cambridge, Ohio. All were occupants of a car which collided with a tractor-trailer. The wreck tied up traffic for several miles in both directions on U.S. 40. A head-on collision near La Salle, Ill., killed three persons from that north - central Illinois city.

Highway deaths mounted at the rate of five an hour Monday, and the toll at midafternoon was considerably higher than at the same time during the 1958 holiday, which also ran 78 hours.

During the 1959 Memorial Day weekend, which was two days in length, 310 persons died in traffic.

For comparative purposes, The Associated Press surveyed a 78-hour period from 6 p.m. Friday, May 13, until midnight Monday, May 16. The survey showed 330 deaths in traffic. The NSC estimated 310 persons die on highways during a normal nonholiday period at this time of year.

Farmer Digs Hole, But At Tender Spot

NEW YORK (AP) — A farmer dug a hole Monday to bury a horse and this is what happened:

News wires from New York to Toronto, Canada, were blacked out for an hour and 45 minutes.

Thirty-eight Western Union lines between New York and Albany went dead.

A number of telephone lines between New York and Albany, as well as television circuits, stopped operating.

The farmer in his digging seven miles south of Kingston, N. Y., had sliced through a major underground cable carrying direct wire communications between New York and the state capital.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. said 120 channels were involved, including eight coaxial cables.

At a late hour Monday, all communications were being rerouted around the break and repairmen were trying to match up and connect 120 lines.

Cousin of Sheikh Seized in Shooting

BIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — An attempt to assassinate the ruler of the oil-rich Persian Gulf sheikhdom of Qatar was officially reported here Monday.

The report said the ruler's cousin, Nasser Ibn Hamad al Thani, opened fire on the sheikh's residence in the Lebanese mountain resort of Aley and that the sheikh's parked car was hit by five bullets. The sheikh was not in the car.

Reliable informants said the incident was the result of unsettled financial differences between the ruler and some members of his family.

Chiropractic Protection for Professional Athletes

Athletes who play-for-pay are of no value to their employers when they are benched with injuries. This is why so many club owners engage the full-time services of a doctor of chiropractic to keep their high-salaried players in the lineup, at physical and mental efficiency.

A baseball pitcher, who spends an afternoon throwing as hard or as accurately as he can, may suffer a lumbar or sacroiliac subluxation, or a shoulder or arm injury. Structural maladjustments prevent muscular coordination and result in loss of control. The ill effects of these lesions are seldom realized immediately. It is difficult for anyone, other than those specifically trained in the physical and mechanical approach, as is the doctor of chiropractic, to determine the origin and nature of the injury.' Scientific examinations by the doctor of chiropractic clearly detect these lesions, and their early correction may prevent the athlete from being sidelined with a wide variety of disorders.

Today the amateur sports enthusiast is following the example of the professional—he has learned to consult a doctor of chiropractic to obtain corrective treatment that will re-establish normal nerve function with the resultant muscular co-ordination of the body, so necessary for successful athletic competition.

Get well — keep well — thru Chiropractic.

SPEAKING OF MONEY

By E. PAUL OLIPHANT

President, Security Trust Co.

What Happens to Old Money?

It might be money in your pocket to learn about old paper money. Today, I'm going to answer such questions as: How much is a worn-out dollar bill worth? How about half a bill? What should you do with a torn or burned dollar bill?

Despite the fact that our paper money is printed on the most durable paper, nevertheless it eventually wears out from constant public handling, becomes unfit for circulation.

The Treasury asks all banks to send in these old, worn, torn or mutilated bills as soon as they receive them, to be retired and exchanged for new ones.

Each year, of the 29 billion dollars of United States paper money in circulation, about six billion is retired and replaced.

E. Paul Oliphant

What does the Government do with all this old money? Some is burned in the incinerators of the Federal Reserve banks, which receive money in bundles, from your bank.

But most old money, especially large denominations and all Federal Reserve notes, totalling some five billion dollars, is returned to the Treasury Department in Washington to be burned. Here an average of 25 million dollars a day is shovelled into an incinerator in the basement of the Treasury under the expert supervision of a man who has more money to burn than anyone in the world, John F. Moran. Since 1927 Mr. Moran has been Chairman of a very remarkable Treasury committee, the Destruction Committee. He has sent over 100 billion dollars up in smoke.

So what's the life of a dollar? The Treasury people tell me nine months. Higher denominations last longer: two years for a five-dollar bill, over 10 years for a fifty.

Here is the law on exchange values. A worn-out or torn bill, with all its pieces, is worth its face value. Just take it to your bank or send it by registered mail to the Currency Redemption Division, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C.

If you have 3/5 or more of a mutilated genuine bill, you can redeem it for full face value.

If you have less than 3/5, but clearly more than 2/5, you may redeem it for ½ its face value. Fragments not over 2/5 are not exchangeable unless accompanied by satisfactory proof that the missing portions have been totally destroyed.

Finally, the back of a bill, without the corresponding portion of the face, is worthless.

You'll find the U. S. Government always leans over your way to redeem its currency, its bonds, its notes. You see that's the way a government keeps its credit sound.

NOTE: For financial advice or banking services, you are cordially invited to consult Mr. Oliphant or his executive assistants Harold E. Arbogast and Joseph Hutt, at Security Trust Company, High and Hanover Sts., Pottstown.

Dean Acheson Claims Russia Seeks To Split Europe from United States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson said Monday "the main purpose of Soviet foreign policy is to split Europe off from the United States."

Acheson, who headed the State Department in 1949-53, gave his views in a speech prepared for the Atlantic Conference of young political leaders.

The conference is made up of delegates from the 15 nations in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. About half of them are members of national parliaments and none is more than 40 years old.

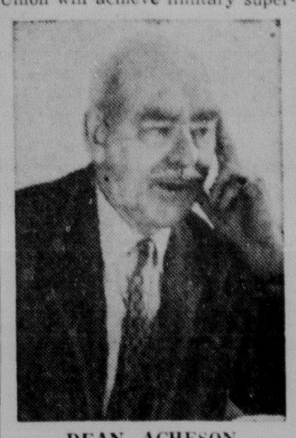
"The coalition between Western Europe and the United States is the foundation of any counterpower to Russian power, not only because of the figures (on production and population) but because freedom requires a certain spaciousness in the world," Acheson said.

"Freedom has to have a place to stand and Europe is the place where it must stand, because, whether or not it stands there will determine whether there is any chance of its standing in Asia or Africa.

"Therefore, the central power house, the central defensive system of a non-Communist world, is Western Europe and the United States.

"This is vital; this is fundamental; it is so regarded in the Soviet Union; and the main purse of Soviet foreign policy is to split Europe off from the United States; that is the main drive of their policy."

Acheson said the Soviets expect that by the middle 1960s the Soviet Union will achieve military superiority over the United States. And if present rates continue, he said, "I should see no reason why their expectations should not be achieved."



DEAN ACHESON

And by the middle 1960s, he said, they expect the West and the United States to "accept Russian pre-eminence."

"I doubt very much, he said, whether the Russians expect to communize Western Europe or the United States. I doubt whether they care about that.

"What they are interested in and what they expect to happen is that their pre-eminent position will be recognized by the capitalist nations which will adjust their policies in accordance with that recognition."

Acheson also said that pronouncements by some Soviet military authorities demonstrate that it is "not a sound expectation to believe that nuclear warfare is unthinkable or impossible."

Kiwanis to Hear Former Chaplain

Charles E. Wilson, manager of the Moody Bible institute Eastern office in Philadelphia, will be the guest speaker of the Kiwanis club tonight at its 6:30 o'clock dinner meeting.

Title of his talk at the Elks home will be "Lest We Forget" which deals with anti-Semitism and neo-Nazism.

Wilson was a member of the chaplain's corps during World War II, serving with the Fourth Armored division of General Patton's Third Army.

He has traviled widely in Europe and, as an ardent amateur photographer, captured a dramatic picture story of war torn Germany which he has developed into an illustrated talk.

As manager of the Institute he represents the Chicago school to churches, youth groups, Bible conferences, summer camps and service clubs. He was born in Chicago and attended Wheaton college and the Northern Baptist seminary.

Arranging the program is Robert Leiby, chairman of the public and business affairs committee. Willard Bickel, president, will be in charge.

The speaker of the morning, was Dr. Charles Kachel, district superintendent of Northeastern conference of EUB church. Another feature of the service was a Quartet from the Pilgrim Holiness college, Allentown.

The Rev. Thomas E. Adams attended a meeting of the Allentown EUB Ministerium in Easton. Guest speaker at the meeting was Dr. Wayne Clymer, dean of the Evangelical Theological seminary, Naperville, Ill. Following lunch at the Brass Kettle, the ministers toured the campus of Lafayette college, Easton.

The May meeting of the Valley grange, Red Hill, was at the Grange hall on Adams street. It was for two purposes —honoring mothers, and a memorial service for those who passed away during the year, they are: A. Herbert Barto, Annie Jacobs, Jennie Herb, Foster C. Hillegass, Nathan Schwenk and Alma Clark.

The oldest mother was Mrs. William Landis; youngest mother, Dorothy Weitzel; mother with largest family, Sallie Smoll.

A social is planned by the Valley grange Saturday evening at the Grange hall.

The last of the traveling Grange programs will be at Wissahickon grange, Ambler, presented by the Keystone grange. Also Pomona grange will meet June 11 at 10:30 a.m. at Cold Point, Norristown.

500 AIRLIFTED FROM CANADA CAMP TOWN

Able-Bodied Men Left to Fight Forest Fire

CAGNON, Que. (AP)—The 500 women, children and disabled of this remote wilderness mining camp town were airlifted to safety late Monday after a forest fire threatened to engulf the community.

As the last dependents were taken out by a quickly assembled fleet of 26 military and civilian aircraft, 1,000 fire fighters with windless weather on their side succeeded in staving off the advance of the flames.

The fire in several places reached to within 100 feet of the town before it was stopped.

"I don't believe there is any more danger," said H. R. Border, an airline representative in Gagnon.

Women, children and a few hospital patients were flown to Montreal, 600 miles southwest of here, and Sept-Iles, an iron ore port 150 miles to the southeast on the St. Lawrence River.

The first plane load of evacuees flew out at 3 p.m. and by 8:30 the loading operation was completed.

Some were stretcher cases.

All able-bodied men were left behind to fight the fire.

Planes, including four Flying Boxcars were mobilized from the Royal Canadian Air Force, mining companies and airlines after Canadian Defense Minister George Pearkes announced in the House of Commons at Ottawa that the town was in grave danger.

Gagnon, a new mining town, could be reached only by air because floods had washed out the only road. The town is in northeast Quebec not far from the Labrador border and near the site of a power project on the Hart-Jaune River.

The fire started from unknown causes Sunday afternoon. It appeared to be burning over an 80-mile radius of scrub spruce and moss that helped fuel the flames. Dense smoke covered the whole area.

The danger to the town became acute when the flames jumped a firebreak.

POACHERS ARRESTED

300 Hear Band Perform At Annual Picnic

At least 300 persons spent a safe Memorial Day at Kenilworth playground during the Second annual Kenilworth Playground picnic that saw the North Coventry Elementary school band give its first outdoor concert.

It was the second time the 43 piece band has given a public concert. The band is headed by M. Anita Monteith, vocal and instrumental teacher, and B. Vernon Brown, fourth grade teacher and band instructor.

An overcast sky threatened the group that was double last year's attendance, but only a baseball game was canceled at 5 p. m. when it began to rain.

Some 75 Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub and Brownie Scouts, sponsored by the Kenilworth Playground association, began the festivities by marching to the flag pole and forming a semi-circle around it. The Rev. Howard D. Keiper, pastor of Coventry Church of the Brethren, gave the invocation.

WELCOMING THE group was R. Newman Creswell, president of the association. His son, Thomas, 13, presented a flag to the playground in memory of Arlington Freese Jr., Mrs. Creswell's brother who was killed in World War II while serving as an aviation machinist mate in the Navy.

Boy Scouts of troop 27 raised the flag and Betsy Scherfel led the group in the pledge of allegiance. Mrs. Howard Bealer led singing of the National Anthem accompanied by the North Coventry band.

William Scherfel Sr., the last remaining director of the group of men that organized the playground association, gave a talk on the history of the association with a special tribute to the persons instrumental in forming the organization.

Following the talk, the Elementary band gave an hour long concert.

MRS. CRESWELL said, "we do feel that having this elementary band was partly responsible for making this a success."

The program was planned by the Recreation committee headed by William Reazor.

SOME OF THIS STUFF HAS GOT TO GO

7 Playtex girdles. If you're not so big, don't bother. These are. People gladly pay $8.95 and $10.95. We're happy to get $3.00.

18 Playtex bras. Seems like everybody wears in-between sizes. Hope you can wear one of the $6.95-$7.95 leftovers at $3.00.

25 Two-way Stretch girdles. Just the things for riding horses. No danger of being cut in half with a stay. The price is cut in half though . . . from $2.00 to $1.00.

46 Wee-Wisp girdles. And that's the best description — too wee. If you can squeeze into one, you'll get a $3.95 girdle for $2.49.

57 Bras. We tell loiterers to move on. And that goes for these $2.50 bras. But we would appreciate $1.00 each.

30 Rose Bushes. They're jumbo size, but wouldn't you know — they have jaggers like all the rest. They're worth $1.59. You can have the bloomin' things for 77c each.

400 Gladioli Bulbs. That's just too many to have cluttering up our store. We were getting 89c a dozen. Out they go at 4c each.

50 Double Begonia Bulbs. They're not doing us much good just gathering dust. We had them at 2 for 59c. Now it's 10c each.

27 Dahlia Bulbs. The same goes for these bulbs. We were getting 29c each. Now all we want is 10c each.

21 Initial Necklaces and Initials. The trouble with the initial business is that not enough people have odd initials and that just happens to be what's left. $1.00 odd initials for 25c.

17 Collars and Ties slightly shop worn. Soap and water will make them worth $1.00 and $2.00 again. Now they're tagged at 10c to 50c.

27 Pieces $1.00 Summer Jewelry. We have nothing to say for them except to tell you we're asking only 10c apiece.

LEMONS: Only not the kind you're thinking of. These are things that kiddies wear. And frankly, we wish some kiddies were wearing them. $1.79 Blouses 50c; $1.98 Suits, Sunsuits and Hats $1.00; a $1.39 Harness 70c; $1.00 Gloves, Handbags 50c; 39c Socks 25c.

14 Ladies' Umbrellas. 16 ribs. The umbrellas; not the ladies.' $3.99 seems like more than you want to pay. How about $1.99?

37 Men's $4.00 Dress Shirts. We just can't believe that everybody is wearing white. Surely someone will wear one of these fancies at $2.00.

75 Pairs of Fabric Gloves. That's too many to have on hand. Some are $4.00, some $3.00 and some $2.00. Just half price is all we're asking.

Ellis Mills — Street Floor

7 Prom Dresses. Suppose you think they're soiled, huh? Well, you're wrong. We don't use them for dust clothes. These are KLEEN clean $22.98 dresses. Take your pick, $15.98.

34 Nylon Slips. We've had them a long time. If you have them half as long, you'll be ahead of the game. They were $3.98 and $4.00 . . . now $2.90.

15 Sub-teen Dresses formerly as much as $12.98. After all the lookin' and tryin' on we couldn't think of asking more than $3.00 apiece.

FEEL LIKE ROOTIN'? If you like to scramble for bargains, you can have a ball in our second floor rummage. Stuff for girls 7-14 and misses. Sportswear, dresses, etc.

Ellis Mills — Second Floor

7 Napkin Holders with 3 dish towels. Holders held over since Christmas at $1.00, now 39c.

4 Treated Window Cloths. Give your windows a treat. Been here 3 years at 59c. It will be a treat to us to sell them at 10c.

38 Woven Place Mats. No place to go but out. Manufacturer's list price 49c. Outgoing price 10c.

4 Lovely Shades of Black Sofa Pillows. Kapok filled. The good looking ones sold at $1.98. The price for these is 29c each.

7 SHOP-worn-APRONS. 1 apron+soap+water equals 1 cheap gift. 50c.

12 Ancient and honorable Remnants of fine materials, most too short except for dusteloths. ½ off the already too-low price.

200 yds. Hemtape. Atrocious colors. Rayon. These were 5c a yard when a nickel was a big deal. Now it's a big deal to us if we get 1c a yard.

5 Plastic Sewing Boxes too small for any practical use. 59c retail, 10c.

12 prs. Drapes and Curtains. The oddest of the ends. Values to $9.95, $1.00 pr.

75 yds. Drip-dry Prints. The pretty ones sold for $1.00 and $1.29 a yard. We're asking only 25c a yard for these.

TODAY — DOORS OPEN 9:30 A.M.

Please don't phone or write in for any of this stuff. We would be happier if you were to come in and make sure of what you're buying. We want to get rid of these things for good.

Safe Mowing

POTTSTOWN'S two hospitals are getting ready for the annual harvest of power mower accidents. The emergency wards are ready to patch up the careless.

Just the other day a news item told about a man who ran his power lawn mower into a piece of baling wire and wound up with a chunk of it in his heart. Fortunately, surgeons were able to perform an "open-heart" operation to remove the wire particle.

This serves as a timely reminder: It is easy to forget that the sturdy mechanical servants most householders use nowadays to groom their lawns are dangerous—even lethal.

It's an excellent idea to give power mowers wide berth, to keep children away while mowing is in progress and to prepare for mowing by carefully checking the lawn to find and remove objects that blades may strike.

What's Up Russia's Sleeve

RUSSIA has embarked on a new policy toward its satellite nations in an effort to surpass Western industrial production, reports Fortune magazine.

Instead of treating its seven Eastern European satellites as exploitable colonies, Russia is now trying to consolidate them into a powerful, coordinated industrial community.

Fortune says Russia's rosy dreams of overtaking the West stem from the formation of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance—COMECON. A Russian "answer to the Marshall plan," COMECON is an attempt to bind together by 1965 the industrial potential of some 300 million people within the satellites and the USSR.

Communist leaders boast that through COMECON they can top Western industrial capacity by 1975, and they predict an invasion of traditional Western markets throughout the world.

Under COMECON, Russian and Communist China have been declared the only countries capable of complete development of all branches of industry and technology. The other nations have been instructed to limit themselves to specific industrial specialties.

Czechoslovkia, for example, is to specialize in heavy machinery; Poland in coal mining and transport equipment; East Germany in chemicals, building materials, and light and precision machinery; and so on.

According to Fortune, the Moscow-based Permanent Secretariat of COMECON has now sprouted a dozen branches in the other Communist capitals. And Red China, North Korea, Nort Vietnam, and Mongolia have been brought into the fold as "observers."

Unneeded Law

IT'S a pleasure to comment on good news now and then, though the opportunities sometimes seem far between. Today's glad tidings are that the labor department has turned thumbs down on the idea of setting up a new bureau to force employers to hire older workers.

The reason is that employers are solving the problem voluntarily at a faster clip than a new law might be expected to do the job.

There is no doubt of the growing awareness of employers that the reliability, interest and experience of older men and women are assets in a job. And less enlightened employers are being forced to learn the lesson by circumstances.

For while there is unemployment today, many of the unemployed have no skills, or obsolete skills, or are living where the jobs aren't. The page upon page of help-wanted" ads in the papers strongly indicate how closely connected are individual ability and the availability of work.

A blunderbuss law would interfere with the careful programs which many employers have worked out for older workers. Hazardous tasks and gruelling work must be ruled out, and often extra care must be taken to create comfortable and healthful conditions for older workers. But this care has proved well worth the trouble.

Requiring that fixed percentages of older workers be employed obviously is impractical. Some industries can use more, and some, necessarily, less.

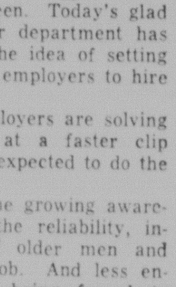
The progress without compulsion has been encouraging, even cheering. It serves to dissipate the notion that nothing good can happen except through passing a new Federal law.

Grampaw Oakley

PUNKIN CORNERS,
May 30.

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where a Bolzano, Italy, business man was named world's baldest man at an international assembly of skin tops in Italy. The winner, I understand, is a highly polished gentleman—a regular smoothie!



Man existed in Florida 10,000 years ago, geologists have determined. Probably was some sort of prehistoric winter resort press agent.

A Vermillion, S. D., pedigreed boxer dog goes on benders by simply sniffing fumes from auto exhaust pipes. All gassed up?

And say: First space travelers may have illusions of seeing Indians and animals peering at them from the outer void, scientific tests indicate. Now, don't tell me the "wild blue yonder" is really wild!

Hopin' you air the same,

Watchman a Great Help to Drunks!

Pulls 'Em Off Tracks!

To the Editor: They say Route 83 is "Dead Men's Run". Then Hanover street road crossing will be a death trap if we let the railroad put electric gates in this crossing.

We watched the way the traffic bottles up and the children and adults walk across safely, and no fear of getting hit by trains with the experienced and alert safety gate men we have.

When trains come at opposite directions the safety men run across and tell us or hold us back.

We saw that man on second shift duty pull persons off the tracks, and drunks that fall and can't get up away from the trains.

The way he handles this terrific traffic jam on a Friday evening, we don't see how he doesn't get a nervous breakdown, men like him with 23 years service and never had an accident, a remarkable record.

Electric gates will never take his place, think Pottstown citizens. We don't want to be sorry.

Let's keep the electric gates away from this busy and terrible crossing. Let's live a little longer.

Pottstown SAFETY MINDED

Extra Charge?

To the Editor: The brims on men's hats keep getting narrower and narrower.

At the rate this trend is going, one of these days you may go into a hat store and find the brim is listed as an extra.

Pottstown NO STYLIST

Teachers' Salaries High

To the Editor: The much noised about teacher salaries, always too little for too much, is getting to the point of becoming the proverbial well worn record.

Teacher salaries in the past have been extremely low compared to the education and work required of them.

During the past few years, however, salaries have been boosted to where a beginning teacher is making on an average what others with a bachelor degree make when first beginning to work, except possibly those with engineering and scientific degrees.

Teachers in the Pottstown area earn $4000 to $4200 their first year. Extra money can be earned by taking on one of the many jobs offered in coaching and supervising after school hours.

Yearly increments of $200 to $250 are given and a teacher always can strive for a supervisory position.

Again in the Pottstown area, principals and supervising principals make from $7000 to over $10,000.

For teachers there are always the papers to grade and meetings to attend which require extra and unpaid for work. But too, there are those Summer months of paid vacation.

Pottstown G. R. L.

The Rainmaker

To the Editor: Soviet scientists are trying a new gimmick—making rain with artificial thunder. They are reported to have set up powerful sound generators on a mountainside to beam the sound at fog and clouds.

It's all very interesting, but it strikes me that the scientists are wasting money on expensive equipment when they already have a champion sound generator in Nikita Khrushchev.

Just park him on a mountainside and he could raise enough thunder to make it rain all over Russia.

Pottstown LAUGHING BOY

Blasts Nikita

To the Editor: With all the deep faith I have in my heart for Almighty God, I ask Him to help us with His Divine Power to keep away from our beautiful shores of America, the diabolic thought of Nikita Khrushchev and Andrei Gromyko.

After the serious and terrible news that came to this country from Paris, we have to consider that Khrushchev was abusing the dignity and honor of our great President, and also the noble sentiments of our people when he and his wife were here in America, and now we are confronted by him and his dishonest government of Soviet Russia and must realize the truth.

It means that he is too incoherent and irrational to handle the President, who represents our precious flag, and also is working hard to obtain once more peace and happiness for the people of all the nations of the world.

Mr. Khrushchev would do better to change his attitude for the best of all mankind.

NEWSPAPERS MIGHT check the most authoritative report on the capture of Adolph Eichmann, former SS colonel. Although early dispatches said he was grabbed in Kuwait, and later rumors from Vienna claimed the Nazi butcher was found in Argentina, there's every reason to believe he was kidnaped in Cairo, almost under Dictator Nasser's nose.

The heroes of the coup were two Israeli security agents helped by three British subjects—one of them a woman. The trio of Britishers were not undercover agents, just ordinary citizens who believed they were carrying out a moral duty. The big mystery: How did two Israeli security officers slip into Cairo?

Kay Starr is being wooed by wealthy Jerry Nathanson. Chums think he has a good chance of winning her hand.

Tony Williams, for years the lead singer with the Platters, has left the fivesome to try his luck as a solo act.

Tin Pan Alley's biggest battle in years looms in the New York State Supreme court—Octave Music vs. Bregman, Vocco and Conn. It's a hassle over Erroll Garner's lovely tune, "Misty".

The table cards at Ciro's, where Lisa Kirk is starring, carry this credit: "Act written, produced and married by Bob Wells."

A friend of Ted Williams quotes him as maintaining: "There's no truth to the reports that I'll manage the Red Sox. All I want to do is finish out the season and break the 500 home run mark. This is all the ambition I have in baseball."

The ad line for the Kirk Douglas-Kim Novak flicker, "Strangers When We Meet," will delight the moralists. It's "the love story of two people who are married, but not to each other."

The Worry Clinic

"Dr. Crane, I was engaged to be married the Autumn after I left college," she said, "but my fiance was killed.

"It left me so disconsolate, I felt no interest in anybody, not even my parents.

"I walked around in a trance. I didn't even want to live. In fact, I drank poison, but my parents got me to the hospital in time to save my life.

"Then you may recall that I consulted you, Dr. Crane, and you made me promise to try out your advice for six months.

"You said if I went through the proper motions, I would soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions. I am frank to confess I didn't believe you at that time, but I agreed.

"I TOLD YOU of an attractive home town boy who had been very fond of me before I went to college. He still seemed to love me, and after my fiance was killed, this boy again began to ask me for dates.

"You said I should accept dates, even if I didn't love the boy. You said I should pretend to be happy and gay, even though I didn't feel that way deep down inside.

"So I tried out your prescription. I went to movies and dances with him. He even got me a job with his company. He took me to lunch two or three times a week.

"We went to church together. We went swimming, and on picnics, on moonlit drives and to concerts.

"I TOLD my boy friend that I was afraid I'd be a wet blanket, but he said he'd take the chance.

"Besides, he told me you said the quickest way to change the condition of a wet blanket is to get it out in the sunshine instead of hiding it away in a dark closet or damp basement.

"At your advice, I had forced myself to laugh and be gay. I soon noticed that I didn't have to force it so much.

"It wasn't long until I even began to laugh again spontaneously. At first I felt I was being dishonorable in thus enjoying life after my fiance had died.

"After a few weeks, my boy friend kissed me. Again I felt a little disloyal, but after a time, I returned his kisses. They felt nice.

"Six months later, my boy friend was transferred to New York. I actually shed tears when I bade him goodbye.

"And I felt so lonesome for him thereafter, that I wrote him every day. When he was home again on vacation, I was so overjoyed, I clung to him and confessed that I loved him. We were married soon afterwards.

Inside Television

By EVE STARR

STARR REPORT: Esther Williams is scurrying around town these days with her head so full of business details she is late for appointments.

This, of course, is no news to anyone who knows Esther.

She hasn't been on time for anything in her life, but she somehow manages to get more done than any three other female stars put together.

We finally got together at Chasen's restaurant after the prevue showing of the NBC "Summer On Ice."

This beautiful hour-long show starring Tab Hunter and Gisele MacKenzie with Craig Stevens as host, shouldn't be missed. It will be great entertainment for the entire family.

AT THE moment, Esther is looking forward to August 8, which happens to be both her 37th birthday and the date of her big Cypress Gardens color special via NBC.

The show is being taped in Florida next month, with Fernando Lamas and Joey Bishop as guests.

It will utilize a huge, specially-built, $500,000 pool with nine underwater windows for use by the cameramen.

"This one," says Esther, "is going to be straight out of the old MGM swimming musicals. I wrote it myself. Or at least I came up with the idea and wrote a four-page synopsis. There is this Far Eastern prince, quite handsome and athletic, who comes to visit Cypress Gardens and gets in the way of a TV show I'm trying to put on. He has eight wives with him. Before the hour is over he is written into the show and divorces all eight of the wives and Esther gets him."

BEFORE LEAVING for Florida, Esther will sign a brand new deal with a large manufacturing firm for a new Esther Williams pool, put together a traveling water show for a South American tour and try to work out the details of a new TV film series in which she expects to alternate each week with another star, probably Gisele MacKenzie.

In addition to these trifling matters, she runs her big, sprawling Mandeville Canyon home and directs the growing-up activities of her three children, Benjy, who will be 11 two days before Esther's birthday, Kim 9, and Susan 6.

Esther has a seemingly inexhaustible supply of energy. I don't believe I have ever seen her looking tired.

If Esther has a fault, and she does, it is a tendency to be bossy. She has a quite well-known mind of her own and no inhibitions whatever about speaking it. But she also has a good deal of forthright charm. The combination has left many a businessman wondering why he said yes when he really meant to say no.

Interpreting The News

Danger Of War Is Heightened

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

The Soviet Union is trying to make everybody believe she is invincible—a line which would be highly dangerous if she begins to believe it herself.

With diplomatic relations now strained to the point where there is no current effort to resolve major differences, the world is relying primarily on a balance of retaliatory power to keep the peace.

Months ago Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev began to boast that he had the power, through military support of East Germany, to make a unilateral end of Allied occupation rights in West Berlin.

He and Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko have been stressing Soviet ability to defend herself.

Khrushchev said at the time of the U2 spy plane incident that the bases of such intruders would be brought under missile attack.

Now Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky, who played the role of Khrushchev's implacable shadow at Paris, has turned the missile threat into an order for automatic application.

This order is designed to drive all foreign planes as far back from the Soviet borders as possible. It will undoubtedly have an effect, since the risks of even accidental intrusion will become very great.

And despite protestations of solidarity, it will have a political effect on the countries which provide bases.

Already the activity of some bases is reduced, and eventually their size will be affected.

The psychological effect of an expression of Soviet willingness to start a nuclear war under certain circumstances is, however, greater than the immediate military and political effects.

First and most urgently it represents a position of blackmail, whether or not the Soviets believe in their own invincibility. Cessation of the U2 flights over the U.S.S.R. is an example of how that works.

In the background lie other possibilities.

If the U.S.S.R. does convince the world that she has an overbalance of power, she will revive in the West an agitation which has only been dormant since Western rearmament. That agitation revolves around the idea that if the Soviet Union is really developing military superiority, a preventive war would be better than waiting for her to take the initiative.

And if the U.S.S.R. begins to fear the loss of the cold war, and does believe in her own invincibility, she might take a chance of pulling something out of the fire.

It has already been some years since V. M. Molotov and other Stalinist leaders began to express the idea that the Soviet Union could endure a nuclear war and come out winner. The apparent return of the Kremlin to at least part of the Stalinist line has a bearing on that idea now.

It could produce a dangerous state of mind on both sides.

CARTS COLLIDE — A horse drawn cart, operated by George Kreibel, Applebachsville, crashed into the side of another horse drawn cart on High street. The other cart was driven by Oscar Blank, who had driven to Pottstown from Reading on his way to his parents home in Limerick. Some people who were strolling on High street said the horse pulling the Blank cart was frightened by a trolley car. Blanks cart is being repaired and he will wait in the borough until tomorrow before continuing his trip.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Swarming Bees . . . Make New Colonies . . .

★ FLING — Ben Longaker, (Benjamin H., that is), the fuel oil tycoon, rang up this department with anxiety in his voice. "Help me out, will you?" he begged. "There's a million bees swarming around my house at 500 Rosedale drive, and I want them out of there! Give me the name of that bee enthusiast who collects them!" Longaker got the name and a sympathetic lecture on the hard working honeybee, which goes on its one and only spree in late Spring or Summer. Didn't Longaker want the bees to have a fling? Sure, he did!. . . . Spurred by a mysterious impulse, the senior members of a bee colony and their queen break bonds with home and security for an impetuous journey into the unknown. They boil from the hive in a wildly excited, dancing, singing cloud that spins into the sky. The migration, or swarm, takes weeks of preparation, and it is nature's way of perpetuating a bee family through colonization. . . .

THE SWARM normally occurs when the aging queen wearies of her sole job, the layng of about 1500 eggs a day. Through instinct, the workers feel a vague dissatisfaction. The queen herself may sense the imminence of young, vigorous rivals. The hive is probably becoming crowded. In preparation for the exodus, worker bees first construct immaculate wax cells for a new generation of drones. In each the old queen lays one egg that will progress from larva to pupa to an adult male bee in 24 days. One of these drones will mate with the new queen. . . .

★ THE EGGS of potential queens hatch faster, so the workers wait more than two weeks before building the large, peanut-shaped queen cells. For safety's sake the hive develops several royal eggs, though only one will ever become its queen. About a week before the first young queen will emerge from her cell, the bees decide that all is well for the flight. Scouts scour the area looking for a new home. The colony anxiously watches the weather. Good weather is essential for swarming, because the old queen has not left the hive in years. Her powers of flight are uncertain. Tension mounts. The bees fill their honey sacs for the journey. Then, with a roar born of some unknown signal, tens of thousands of bees spill from the hive for the great adventure of their lives. . . .

FOR PERHAPS a quarter of an hour, the bees abandon themselves to aerial acrobatics. Finally they settle in a pendant cluster at a convenient spot to take stock of the situation. Often, if the old queen's wings tire quickly, the insects may chose a highly unlikely place. One swarm came to rest on a speeding motorcycle. Now scouts zip off in all directions to make the final decision about the hol'ow tree, shelter, or empty hive that will house the colonists. Returning scouts perform intricate dances atop the swarm to describe their respective finds, the approximate distances and directions. The most vigorous dancer usually sways the crowd. . . .

★ AFTER OCCUPYING the chosen place, the bees enter a race against time to establish and stock the new city before Winter. Builders, nurses, temperature regulators, brewers, cell cleaners, undertakers, guards, water carriers, and foragers get down to frantic work. The holiday is over. Meanwhile, back at the old hive, the depleted colony also begins life anew. The remaining old bees, the larger number of young workers, and the drones wait for the young princesses to leave their royal cradles. Often the first one out will temperamentally lead a second swarm. But it is nature's more normal way that the first queen to emerge breaks into the other royal cells and stings her rivals to death.

Your Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

BEWARE of the toxicodendron.

Toxicodendron — that's the fancy name botanists use for the three-leafed weed most of us call poison ivy.

If you plan a vacation in the woods this Summer, or even if you are thinking about doing much hiking, it might be a good idea to drop into your neighborhood drug store and look over the stock of pharmaceuticals designed for the prevention and treatment of poison ivy.

Not everyone will be bothered by the noxious weed, but about half of our adult population is allergic to one or more members of the poison ivy family—ivy, poison sumac or poison oak.

We expect about 350,000 cases of skin poisoning to be reported to doctors this Summer. They will range from mild itching to severe inflammation and blistering.

A really bad attack might take weeks to heal.

Symptoms may begin any time from a few hours to as long as a week after contact with the poisonous plant.

Poison ivy is found in every section of the United States—usually right in the middle of the spot you have picked for your picnic.

It grows in the form of clinging vines, trailing shrubs and upright shrubs. The leaves vary in length from one to four inches and are a glossy green in the Summer and red or russet in the Spring and Fall.

The white, waxy fruit resembles mistletoe.

The vast majority of cases of poison ivy are caused by direct contact with the plant. However, you might also become affected by touching clothing, garden implements and even pets which have touched the weed.

Some extremely sensitive persons may contract poison ivy from smoke from burning leaves or stalks of the plant.

The best treatment for poison ivy is to avoid the thing. But, as you can see, this is not always easy to do.

If you fail to heed my advice about preparing for an encounter with poison ivy ahead of time, you might obtain at least some relief by washing the area exposed to the plant with a strong soap and plenty of water as quickly as possible.

If inflammation or blistering is severe, better see your doctor for prompt treatment.

Perkiomen School Schedules Graduation Ceremony

Two Pottstown and six area pupils at Perkiomen preparatory school, Pennsburg, are among 77 pupils to graduate Sunday during the 85th commencement exercises at the Palm Schwenkfelder church, Palm.

Pottstonians include: Wesley R. Grow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Grow, 256 East Third street, and James F. Purnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest C. J. Purnell, Pottstown RD 2.

JAMES F. PURNELL

David W. Hallman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Hallman, Pennsburg, was named Valedictorian of the class. In 1956 he was the winner of the Local Day scholarship offered by the school.

Hallman was presented the United Schwenkfelder Choir prize in 1958-59 for his contribution to the areas of music at the school and this year received a Parents Association medal for the same service to the Glee club activity.

OTHER area graduating pupils include: David L. Gaskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Raymond Gaskill, Pennsburg; Joel B. Parrott, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parrott, Pennsburg; Roger Erb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erb, East Greenville; Robert C. MacCormack, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wells MacCormack, Collegeville, and William F. Rupp 3d, son of William R. Rupp Jr., Royersford.

Principal speaker for the commencement will be Robert E. Schultz, senior administrative officer of the Princeton-Pennsylvania Accelerator, who will use "Science and the Individual" as his topic.

During his many years of association with universities and colleges, he has published eight texts in the fields of management, personnel and manufacturing.

Schultz received his degree in electrical engineering at Valparise Technical institute and has completed graduate work at Temple university and the University of Pennsylvania.

While at the University of Pennsylvania, Schultz served as assistant administrative director of Project Research and Grants and director of the Digital Computer programs and the U.S. Department of Commerce Industrial center at the school.

PHYSICIAN ADDRESSES PTA MEET

Tells Grown Populace Is Starving Amid Plenty

SCHOOL PANEL MARKS FINAL GATHERING

PENNSBURG — Mr. Paul Undercoffler, 477 Penn St., Corr., Phone OR 9-7244, Miller's News Agency, del. Phone OR 9-7467.

Dr. Faith Baver, Pennsburg, was guest speaker for the PTA final meeting of the season. The guest speaker is also the newly elected treasurer of the organization.

The doctor told the members present about how the populace is starving in the midst of plenty and are losing their sense of values. She spoke on the topic of nutrition.

"Starving in the midst of Plenty is due to poor diet, bad timing and negligence. Malnutrition, she said, "occurs mostly in 2 to 3 year olds, teenagers and young mothers.

"Generally too few of us eat a proper breakfast, in the evening when the need for vitality is least, we over-eat such things as chips, popcorn, pretzels and sodas. These lie in the stomach over night and a full feeling in the morning prevents us from eating a nutritious breakfast."

A FILM, "Food for Freddy", illustrated the effects of good and insufficient diets on white rats. It was noted that well fed animals were alert, sleek, and content, while those fed on cakes, sodas, jelly and cookies were pepless, irratable and in one case, dead.

A short business meeting followed with members agreeing on a decision to send out questionaires concerning dates for future meetings. Re-elected president was Mrs. David D. Detar Jr., Mrs. Ernest Mensch and Mrs. Harry Tornetta were elected to serve as first and second vice presidents, respectively, while Mrs. Richard Weikel was chosen to serve again as secretary.

INFLATION NOTE

NEW YORK (AP)—At the start of the new warm weather season the big notice on the Coney Island boardwalk still reads "Penny Arcade," but the standard charge for the machines is a nickel.

EYE OPENER

ATTICA, Iowa (AP)—When the principal speaker at the Attica High school commencement exerises finished his address, a girls choral group sang: "Sleepers, Awake."

Bible Translator Speaks at Mount Carmel

ST. PETER'S—Mrs. Leland Dawson, Corr., Phone HO 9-6643, Edwin Kurtz, Del., Phone FA 3-1286.

Guest speaker at the Mount Carmel Methodist church, St. Peter's, was Edward Moser, a Wycliffe Bible translator, who with his wife, is translating the Bible into the language of the Seri Indians of the state of Senora, the northernmost state in Western Mexico.

They are finishing their furlough at Knauertown while Moser has been working on a master's degree in linguistics at the University of Pennsylvania.

Richmond Watson, newly licensed local preacher, conducted the morning worship.

A new church library was opened the past Sunday.

Lenora McCulley will be librarian, assisted by Kit Root.

THE WSCS of the Mount Carmel church will have their annual Memorial Day weekend open house and luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Buckwalter, St. Peter's, Mr. and Mrs. William Baver and family, Pughtown; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Noel and family, Pottstown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Buckwalter and family of Oreland.

3 Indonesians Die Before Firing Squad

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Three men sentenced in connection with an attempt on President Sukarno's life in November 1957 died before a firing squad Saturday, the government announced Monday.

Eleven persons perished and more than 100 were injured in the attempt on Sukarno's life, made with hand grenades. This was the first use of the death penalty in Indonesia, which became sovereign in 1949.

New Members Join 4-H Club

PENNSBURG — Mr. Paul Undercoffler, 477 Penn St., Corr., Phone OR 9-7244, Miller's News Agency, del. Phone OR 9-7467.

Four new members joined the Marlborough 4-H club at a meeting at Mumbauersville Gun club headquarters bringing total membership to 38, the largest in Montgomery county. Jay Repa, president, opened the meeting and Cindy Kugler led the pledge. Martha Stock, song leader, led the group in singing and offered the suggestion that the club purchase new song books.

David Kugler, led a discussion on third year forestry and discussed plans for a baseball game for the next meeting, June 17.

Sandra Grill spoke on the topic "Club Constitution."

DOG CHASES THIEF FROM AREA HOME

Intruder Is Bitten As He Flees With Money

A man who was chased from a Boyertown home Saturday night by an angry pet dog is being sought today by Boyertown police.

According to Police Chief Henry E. Groff, William Lingenfelter, 18, of 107 North Walnut street, returned to his home at 10:40 o'clock and was surprised by the intruder who threatened to rob him.

Groff said the boy could not see the man's face because a flashlight was shining in the boy's eyes. Groff added that the youth opened the living room door and let out the barking dog which attacked the man and bit him on the left leg.

The man fled to a parked car and drove away, Groff said. The intruder took $30 to $40 in dimes from the home before William arrived. It is not certain how entry was gained, Groff said.

DEPRESSION PUPILS—A quarter century has brought a few changes to the countenances of these Pottstonians. These "before and after" photos are of two members of the 1935 class at Pottstown High school. The class will have a reunion June 11 at 6:30 p. m. in Brookside country club.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Despite Depression Class Has Made It

their first job 25 years ago.

"Besides that, less than 10 percent of our class was able to continue higher education," said O'Dell.

Telephone calls and knocking on doors developed other information on the whereabouts of the 1935 class.

Among reunion guests will be Francis Shelley, Mobile, Ala.; Benjamin Skora, Tampa, Fla.; Elizabeth (Wise) Brookover, Tuscaloosa, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. James Bell, Connecticut.

The Bells, James and Myrtle (Hiltwine), are one of two couples who met in the class of 1935 and were married. The other is William and Ruth (Gingrich) Cunningham Jr., 222 Diamond street.

Cunningham recalled his graduation day. "We were very happy. And the next day we found job hunting was very tight."

He continued, "People sometimes say it is good to live through a tough era. I guess doing so toughens you, but I never saw an advantage in living through the depression.

He noted that of the few who continued studies, most were girls who were in Normal school for two years.

THE RATIO today at Pottstown High school for education after graduation is 30 percent, with most of that figure enroled in four-year college courses.

John Gilbert, Third and Hanover streets, is president of the 1935 class. He declared, "We were graduated in the midst of a depression, so jobs were scarce.

"Still, if a fellow had sufficient shoe leather and determination he could find work after a good search," said Gilbert.

Joseph Weikel, 844 Spruce street, spent a year and a half looking for a job.

DOUGLASS MOYER, 709 North Charlotte street, is class vice president. "I nearly wore through a pair of shoes and lacked money to replace them before getting work," recalled Moyer.

It took him three months to find work at Dana corporation At that time a man at Dana could figure on working seven months a year. The most stable jobs then were at Bethlehem Steel company and at Doehler-Jarvis division, he noted.

Those hard experiences probably will be rehashed at the June 11 reunion. But the years have been good to most classmates of 1935.

For example, Mrs. Measely was able to finish college and become a school teacher; Cunningham has a new and good insurance job; O'Dell is partner in a thriving beer distributorship; Moyer is partner in a florist company; Weikel is a contractor and Gilbert is an official for a pharmaceutical firm.

A QUESTIONNAIRE to all classmates disclosed that "nearly all are doing financially well and are sending dozens of children to college. All that despite careers begun in the middle of a depression," said Mrs. Measley.

But of all hallmarks of the depression, the lack of a 1935 year book is foremost, according to the questionnaire.

To remedy that, class president Gilbert is compiling a "yearbook" that is a quarter century late. It will be distributed at the reunion.

"There won't be any photos and all printed matter will be stenciled. Still, I think the booklets will do the trick in helping us relive the past 25 years," said Gilbert.

'Phone Users to Get Emergency Numbers

Residents of Douglass-Montgomery township will receive along with their tax notices this week stickers which fit under telephones giving an emergency phone number.

Township supervisors planned the emergency system with Boyertown. On the sticker is the number FO 7-2500 which is the central operator for police, fire and ambulance.

Warren Zern, township secretary, warned residents not to use the number for anything except emergency calls.

OBITUARIES

W. C. Griffiths Dies in Hospital

William Colbert Griffiths, Warwick township, Pottstown RD 2, died Monday morning after two weeks in Memorial hospital.

Mr. Griffiths, 71, was a retired executive of the Berwind White Coal company, Philadelphia. He worked there 34 years and retired in 1954 when he moved to Warwick township.

He was born in Philadelphia a son of the late Rev. Edwin C. and Louise (Rukaber) Griffiths and was the husband of Martha (Watters) Griffiths.

Mr. Griffiths was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and during World War I was a lieutenant in the Navy. He was a trustee of the Wayne Methodist church and of the Children's Methodist home, Philadelphia. Mr. Griffiths was a Mason in Charleston, W. Va., where he also was a member of the Masonic consistory and shrine.

SURVIVING WITH his wife are two sons, William C. Jr., Pottstown RD 2; James, Virginia Beach, Va.; and a sister, Helen Griffiths, Narberth.

Services are being planned by the White Memorial home, Parker Ford.

Month of May Was Noted for High Rainfall

as much as normal rainfall.

The murky weather persisted over the entire State, yet most sections — Pottstown included—had less rain Memorial Day than anticipated.

THE CLOUDINESS will hold on until this morning, with a few showers or a thundershower still a threat. The low this morning will be in the low 60s, which would be one of the warmest low marks of the year.

Although the borough has experienced high marks in the upper 80s, it has stayed above 60 only three nights in 1960; the mildest, a balmy 64, coming April 25.

Another unusual fact about the swiftly departing May is that the warmest day was only 80, which wouldn't have broken a record on any day of the month or any day after April 12.

The warmest days of the year were April 25 and 26, when it was 86. The closest it got to the 86 was an 80 on May 16.

MAY SHOULD end with mild, pleasant, drier weather, and June will begin with more of the same.

The forecast for the week sees temperatures here near normal for the season, which is between 58 and 79. There will be little day to day change, and no rain until Friday or Saturday, when about a half inch is expected to fall.

Temperatures, uniformly in the high 50s and low 60s over the weekend, will inch up into the high 70s today, and could reach near 80 under sunny skies tomorrow.

The sluggish thermometer was a result of the heavy cloud cover and general rains. By daybreak the frontal zone should be over the Delaware valley, riding rapidly out to sea.

After its passage the clouds will begin to break up and thin out to partly cloudy skies and intermittent sunshine for the early part of the day, growing sunnier toward sundown.

Emma K. Good, Mother of Nine, Dies At Home

Mrs. Emma K. (Groff) Good, 76, widow of William H. Good, Route 83, East Vincent township, died Sunday afternoon in her home, after an illness of two months.

She was born at Bird In Hand (Lancaster county), daughter of the late David and Fannie (Kauffman) Groff, and lived in this area more than 50 years.

Mrs. Good was a member of Vincent Mennonite church.

Ex-Servicemen, Firemen, Civic Groups Pause to Pay Homage to Fallen Heroes

Memorial Day passed amid glowing tributes to the heroic dead at two Twin-Borough area cemeteries, where ex-servicemen's organizations Women's groups, firemen, Girl and Boy Scouts, Cubs and Brownies and Gold Star mothers gathered for annual exercises.

The placing of memorial wreaths and flowers, prayers, the firing of three volleys and sounding of taps all formed part of services conducted in Zion's cemetery, near Spring City and Fernwood cemetery, Royersford.

Brief addresses by three local pastors paid tribute to the departed and made pleas for devotion to God and country.

In Spring City, the participating units motored to Zion's cemetery, where a line of march formed to enter the cemetery to the gravesides of Pvt. Walter T. Caffrey, headed by Spring-Ford Junior High school band.

IN ROYERSFORD the various units met at the Humane firehouse, Third avenue and Walnut street, and marched to the cemetery, headed by the Spring-Ford Senior High school band and Burgess George W. Lee, Chief of Police Bryson M. Turner and the speakers.

The observance in Spring City was sponsored by Walter T. Caffrey American Legion post. The Liberty Fire company had its service immediately following the post service.

Royersford Post 6341 VFW and Capt. Harris Buckwalter American Legion post 164, Royersford, joined with the Humane and Friendship fire companies for the memorial in Royersford.

Riding in a car were George Hoover, 116 Second avenue, and William E. Kline, 366 Walnut street.

SPEAKING for the firemen at the Royersford service, the Rev. John B. Bergstresser, pastor of Royersford Grace Lutheran church, told how there should be a special effort to commemorate our ancestors, and how military of the U.S. is different from any other government.

"We are in love with America and that for which it stands," he said, and "we are not here by force, but by choice, to honor the fallen heroes so that it may be free."

"We should make a special effort to commemorate our ancesters," he pointed out, "for they handed down to us freedom. We do not wish to speak of war, but of our country. There is indeed no other government and constitution like it. With all the rights, our government and military are different than any other country, and we should also recognize our devoted people. This day we should think of America's greatness."

The Rev. R. E. Zollinhofer, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, giving the address for the American Legion and VFW, drew a contrast between the belief of where Jesus Christ was buried and where the dead are buried.

"We are here," he asserted, "to honor the dead and why they died."

OFFICERS OF the ex-servicemen's groups and the fire chiefs placed wreaths on the Firemen's Memorial marker, as part of the service which included the firing of three volleys by the firing squad, "taps" and the National anthem by the band.

The Rev. G. Willis Marquette delivered the address for the American Legion post in Zion's cemetery for the Spring City observance.

The Spring City Methodist pastor noted the similarities and differences between the time he delivered a sermon at Pearl Harbor in 1945 and the present time.

In 1945, the Rev. Marquette, then a Marine chaplain with the U.S. forces at Pearl Harbor, delivered a sermon in the Holland Smith theater.

HE SAID that the Armistice was signed in 1918 at the conclusion of a war which was fought to make the world safe for democracy.

"Then in our ease and complacency, he continued, "the balls of fire came out of the rising sun in the East to strike at Pearl Harbor."

Quoting scripture from the words of Jesus, "Whosoever shall save his life shall lose it, whosoever shall lose his life for My sake shall find it," he warned that "we should be careful we do not show the same attitude today."

Field Dedicated By Memorial Speech

Richard S. Schweiker, Republican candidate for Congress, came to Royersford Monday afternoon as the main speaker for the formal dedication of the Royersford Jaycee - sponsored Little league baseball field in Victory park.

Located on part of a plot which was established in 1917 by the Friendship Fire company as a memorial to Fallen heroes of World War I, the spot provided a significant setting for the program which included tribute to the soldiers of all wars.

Schweiker, gave a brief but impressive address to dedicate the ball field at the conclusion of which the flag was hoisted.

The opening game of the Little league series followed. Burgess George W. Lee tossed out the first ball.

SCHWEIKER reminded the large group that the Royersford Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed at Lansdale in 1955.

After dedicating the baseball field, he went on to cite Pearl Harbor, Korea and other places which cost the lives of men.

"Today, more than ever," he warned, "this country is threatened by the idealogy which could destroy the world."

"To keep the peace, we are arming for war and let us remember the words of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Admiral Farragut, Patrick Henry, Teddy Roosevelt and his "Big Stick" and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow the hope of all mankind is to live in peace," he concluded.

Pastor Announces Resignation; Will Move to Collingdale Church

The Rev. R. E. Zollinhofer, for eight years pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Fifth avenue and Washington street, Royersford, announced his resignation to his congregation Sunday night.

Explaining that it is not his personal desire to leave Royersford, "but the call of God, which I feel gives no other choice," the Rev. Zollinhofer said he will leave Monday, July 11, to become pastor of the Collingdale Church of the Nazarene, suburban South Philadelphia. He added that the Collingdale church needs to relocate and rebuild.

Sunday afternoon, the church board will meet with the district superintendent, the Rev. William C. Allshouse to consider the call of a new pastor.

The membership of the Royersford church has doubled during the Rev. Zollinhofer's pastorate and the church has witnessed to extensive building operations at a total cost of $112,000.

IN 1953 an addition was constructed costing $44,000. In 1958 the new church was built at a cost of $68,000. A saving of $60,000 on the construction resulted, due to the congregation doing the building and the pastor the supervising.

Commenting on his action in leaving, the Rev. Zollinhofer said "Royersford has been home to us for eight years. The congregation has treated us as part of their families and they have worked shoulder to shoulder with us to build in the community. The businessmen and people of the community, especially the neighbors, made our stay here most pleasant. All of this has made our hearts sad in having to make this choice."

"I want to express my appreciation to the folk of this community for all their kindness to myself and my family."

Sarah Brooks Is Dead At 62

Sarah S. Brooks, 62, Royersford RD 1, died early Monday morning at her home after a long illness.

Miss Brooks was born in Philadelphia, daughter of the late Joseph W. and Sarah (Schofield) Brooks. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Oaks.

She is survived by her step-mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks, of Deans, N. J., and a brother, J. W. Brooks, of Lincolnville, Maine.

Funeral services will be tomorrow at 1 p. m. from the Freeman Funeral home, 224 Main street, Trappe, with the Rev. John F. Leser, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. Interment will be in Union cemetery, Whitemarsh.

Pastors Reassigned

The pastors of Twin-Borough Methodist churches will begin their sixth years here following their re-assignment by the Methodist conference at Allentown.

Returned to the Spring City Methodist church was the Rev. G. Willis Marquette. The Rev. Linton F. Mennig was returned to the Royersford Methodist church.

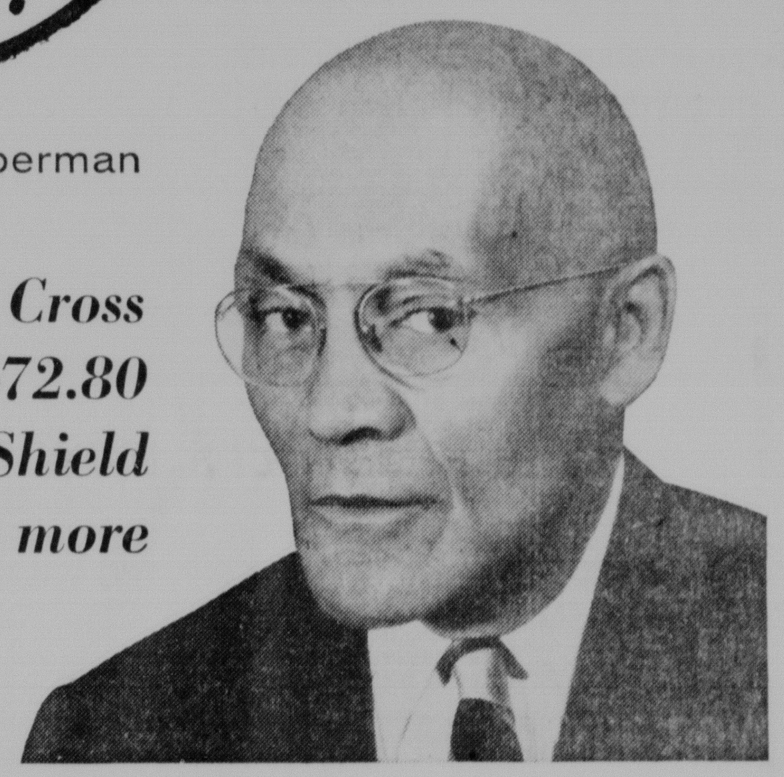
Seen a hospital bill lately?

This newspaperman has . . .

Blue Cross saved him $672.80 . . . and Blue Shield $307.50 more



"I HAVE OFTEN HEARD Blue Cross praised as the Plan that pays not a small portion but practically all of the hospital bill," says newspaperman Prince Edwoods, of 6664 Lincoln Drive, Philadelphia. "Also that Blue Shield covers a substantial part of doctor bills.

"So I was not surprised—only pleased—to have those facts verified during my recent illness. Blue Cross and Blue Shield covered $980.30 of the expense, leaving me only a relatively small part to pay out of my own pocket. These nonprofit, community-wide enterprises are wonderful. You cannot afford to be without them."

MR. EDWOODS has put his finger right on two of the most important facts about Blue Cross/Blue Shield—the coverage is nonprofit and sensible. Under his Blue Cross service contract, his hospital bill was actually covered in full. This is the case with the majority of Blue Cross patients.

And the same is true of Blue Shield for those of moderate income. The fact these Plans are not operated for profit means more money can be devoted to paying hospital and doctor bills. It's that simple. Like Mr. Edwoods, make sure you have Blue Cross and Blue Shield when sickness strikes.

Three Boys, Woman Die in Wreckage

pact points, according to Mince

The crash tore back the top and sides of the car, laying bare the frame and knocking out the seats. The front end of the New Jersey auto was smashed in, pinning Mrs. Adams in the seat.

An investigation by police revealed that the Philadelphia youth had been involved in a fracas at Lakeview park about an hour before the accident.

MINCE SAID he believed the youths had tried to "break up" a fight at the park. They were asked to leave the park, he said.

The young men had been on the outing with four others who were returning to Philadelphia in another car. They all lived in the Germantown section.

The Kennedy brothers were riding in the rear seat of a 1949 model car with a third brother, Allen, aged 15. The youngest brother was rushed to Memorial hospital with a fractured left arm and bruises.

A fifth occupant of the Philadelphia car, John Durkin, 18, of Germantown, was taken to Memorial hospital with head injuries. A member of the U.S. Air Force, he was later transferred to the Valley Forge General hospital in serious condition.

THE DRIVER of the other car, Henry Casey, 54, of Glendora, N. J., was pronounced in critical condition at Memorial with possible internal injuries, a fractured nose and cuts of the left arm.

Rear seat occupants of the car driven by Casey were Albert and Lillian Rice, 65 and 58 years old, respectively of Camden, N.J. Rice suffered a cut on the face and bruises of the left leg while his wife received a possible fracture of the left arm, a deep forehead cut and multiple bruises. Mrs. Rice is a sister of Mrs. Adams.

Articles were scattered from the cars for a distance of 20 to 30 feet around the crash and a wheel was knocked from the Philadelphia auto. Police said the left rear tire of the youth's car was smooth.

Dr. Ivan Hess, Limerick physician, pronounced the two Kennedy brothers, Leidy and Mrs. Adams dead at the scene of the crash.

POLICE SAID there were no skid marks in the vicinity of the crash. Gas was spilled over the highway and police had to extinguish a fire that erupted in the engine of one of the autos nearly half an hour after the crash.

State police patrol the road, Mince said, although not as frequently as other larger highways in the vicinity.

One of the first of hundreds of by-standers to get to the crash scene was John Epps, of Ridge Pike, Limerick, about half a mile from the crash site.

Epps described the accident as "by far the worst I've ever seen. Two of the boys were lying in all that twisted wreckage in the back and another was lying partly on the frame and partly on the road."

The rite of Extreme Unction was administered for Casey, Durkin and Allen Kennedy at the hospital. The Rev. John S. Heim, assistant rector of St. Aloysius Catholic church, administered the rite.

Youth Weeps When Told of Friends' Death

"There isn't anybody dead, is there? There isn't anybody dead?"

Fred Gates, 18, of Philadelphia stood in the lobby of Memorial hospital Monday night. He made no effort to check the tears that ran down his cheeks.

"Please tell me there ain't none of the Kennedy boys dead," he said. "They're my friends."

Finally someone told Gates the ugly truth.

TWO OF THE Kennedy brothers had been killed an hour earlier when their car skidded into another auto on Township Line road a half mile south of Limerick. Another one was hospitalized with multiple injuries.

The crash took a total of four lives. Five others were injured —one critically.

Gates and three companions who had been with the Kennedy youths earlier in the day at Lakeview Amusement park came upon the wreckage of their friends' car moments after they left the park. A bystander told them they could learn details of the accident at the hospital.

"I can't understand it," Gates said. "We just came up here for a picnic. That's all—just a picnic."

American Girl Dances Solo At Bolshoi Ballet

MOSCOW (AP)—For the first time in history an American girl danced the major solo on the stage of the Bolshoi Theater Monday night and won audience accolades for her interpretation of a role the famous Ulanova often dances.

She is beautiful, red-haired Anastasia (Stacia) Stevens, 17-year-old daughter of the Pulitzer Prize winning Moscow correspondent of Time magazine and the Christian Science Monitor, Edmund Stevens, and his Russian wife.

This was no case of an understudy winning glory or of a visiting foreigner giving a guest performance. It was a graduation recital by the Bolshoi Ballet School where Stacia is finishing with grades of excellent in all subjects.

She is the first American girl to finish the gruelling course. She started the usual nine-year course only four years ago after previous training in Rome.

She danced the Seventh Waltz in Chopiniana, which Ulanova danced on Western tours, and also played in an ensemble for the last act entitled "Ballet Classroom."

Stacia plans to take one year's graduate work at the Bolshoi school and then go home to take her chances on making a New York stage career.

East Coventry 'Tigers' Amass High Point Total at Field Day

PARKER FORD—Phone HY 5-6275, Lile McDonald, del. Phone Glenview 8-5219

A large number of parents and friends of pupils at East Coventry Elementary school attended annual Field Day activities at the school.

Pupils of the three upper grades, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth, were divided equally into three teams, the Tigers, Lions and Bears. They then competed in the various contests of skill, races and relays with pupils of their own age group.

Winning points were tabulated according to teams with the Tigers scoring highest.

ON THE winning team from Mrs. Irene Mayberry's Fifth grade were Gerald Albright, James Downing, Larry Lilley, Robert Oberholtzer, Earl Weaver, Kathy Favinger, Leta LaFollette, Joanne Peterman and Sandra Slemmer.

William H. Fryer's Sixth graders who were members of the Tiger team included Jarrold Batdorf, Kenneth Fisher, Neal Hartranft, Richard Kulp, Clarence Mitchell, Patrick Tinney, Marsha Bauer, Virginia Carl, Maria Kauffman, JoAnn Kochel, Hollis Lessig, Linda Miller and Mary Ellen Weaver.

Mrs. Helen Mowrer conducted a program of games for her Kindergarten sections during the afternoon. While some of the contests were competitive, each child was awarded a "prize" ribbon for his efforts.

In the remaining four classrooms, total points were tabulated for ribbons won by each child. The following are the top winners in each class, three boys and three girls from each:

Mrs. Marian Scholten's First grade: Gwen Gordon, Carol Jean Roussey, Neale Montgomery, Mark Williams, William Crozier and James Hatfield.

Mrs. Leone Fryer's combined First and Second grade: Todd Malenke, and Philip Mizell, Gail Peck, Molly Shick and Robin High.

Mrs. Ruth Grebe's Second grade: Benner Peterman, Gary Diffenderfer, Robert Wilson, Karon Pennypacker, Connie Teseneary and Diane Keen.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moniz' Third grade: David Keeley, Gregory Roussey, Bruce Taney, Norma Freas, Debbie Mull and Jean Domin.

COMMITTEE IN charge of field day activities was William H. Fryer, Mrs. Ruth Grebe and Mrs. Marian Scholten.

Traditional refreshment stands for ice cream, candy, orange drink and popsicles were in charge of Mrs. Martha Pechin, school nurse and Mrs. C. Ray Woodland, school secretary.

Several novelty items were included this year, such as jump ropes, yoyos, jacks and other toys for the children.

Mothers assisting this year with the refreshments were Mrs. Howard Bechtel Jr., Mrs. Steven Domin, Mrs. Murray Gordon, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. Louis Buckwalter, Mrs. Kenneth Lessig, Mrs. John Peterman, Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. Earl Weikel.

C. RAY Woodland is principal of the school.

James W. Moyer, Pottstown RD 1, and Mrs. Irene C. Mayberry, teacher of the Fifth grade accompanied the class on a tour of Valley Forge this week.

Moyer, a former school teacher told the group interesting facts during the course of the tour. The trip was made by bus.

THERE WILL be no classes at East Coventry school Monday. The last day school will be in session this term is Tuesday, June 14.

Mrs. Mowrer's Kindergarten sections at the school won the savings plaque again this week for their participation in the weekly Thrift program.

Representatives of East Coventry's Fifth grade attended the final session for the term of the special classes supervised as a cooperative project by Dr. Frank Giraffe, of the county special education staff. Taking part were several children chosen from East Coventry Vincent Townships, North Coventry and French Creek Valley schools.

Chosen from East Coventry to take a weekend trip with a group to Washington, D. C., June 11 and 12 are Patricia Keen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Keen; Cheryl Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Montgomery and James Downing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Downing.

LIONS CLUB FETES HONOR GRADUATES

EAST GREENVILLE—Victor Stahl, Tel. OR 9-7264. Lester M. Miller, Del. Tel. OR 9-7467.

The top ten honor graduates of this year's class of Upper Perkiomen High school were guests of the Perkiomen Valley Lions club at its semi-monthly dinner meeting at the Owls home, East Greenville.

In the group are Evonne Schultz, Elaine Lachman, Barbara Nase, Elinore Wieand, Carolyn Crum, Michael Houterman, Jacqueline Brey, Sandra Groff, Marilyn Crum and Marguerite Shuhler.

Clarence A. Roth, Upper Perkiomen High school principal, spoke briefly, complimenting the group on its academic achievement. The honor group and Roth were introduced by Lawrence W. Nase, program chairman, and recently named head of the social studies department at UPHS.

President Rolland Stong introduced Arthur Bolton, Michael Hillegass and David E. Wood as new club members.

MEMBERS WILL report at Camp Rockwood Wednesday evening to aid in completion of its "Operation Paint Brush." The club recently pledged to repaint the four sleeping cabins at the Upped Perkiomen Girl Scout Council Summer camp. One cabin remains to be done. A meeting of the board of directors will follow.

C. Donald Lechner announced the club had placed its order for an electric scoreboard with the M. D. Brown company, Niles, Mich., for installation on the Upper Perkiomen High school field. It is expected the apparatus will be shipped next week. The club will expend about $1750 on the project.

'Showboat' Sails Amid Fanfare Of Cub Scout Monthly Meeting

PARKER FORD—Phone HY 5-6275, Lile McDonald, del. Phone Glenview 8-5219.

A "Show Boat Revue" carried out the theme of the month of Cub Pack 4, Parker Ford, at the meeting in Ridge Fire hall, Spring City RD 1.

All dens cooperated in providing the background for the revue which depicted a showboat, the "S.S. Snafu" about to sail from port. As the passengers and crew prepared to board the ship, Roger Shambough presented an accordion solo.

Cubmaster Kenneth Lessig, costumed as a "show boat barker", gave orders to cast-off and the S.S. Snafu left port, as the show began.

Members of den 3 presented a humorous rendition of the "Can Can". Members of the chorus line were Matthew Williams, Vaughan Fitch, Charles Boldaz, Craig Roussey, Jay Craven, John Snyder, William Craven, Craig BuckWalter, and Eugene Hatfield. Den Mother, Mrs. Dawn Boldaz, directed the number.

DEN 2 CHOSE a white-face minstrel for their selection. Reid Lessig was interlocutor with Lance Parson and William Fryer were end men. James Batchelor and Barry Copenhaver assumed the duties of middle men. Mrs. Mary Lessig, den mother directed the presentation.

Barber shop harmony was presented in a selection of several melodies by Mrs. Virginia High's den 1. Bruce Taney, Ricky, Kochel, Thomas High, Robert Peck and Donald Taney are members of this den.

The boys stood behind life-size drawings of costumes on cardboard complete with bow ties and hats for the singing of the numbers.

The reverse side of the cardboard screen had a drawing of a showboat which was also displayed. Barry Runyan, a member of the den accompanied the musical numbers at the piano.

A SONG game was presented by members of den 5 under the direction of Mrs. Mary Pronchick, den mother. Taking part were Donald Roussey, Donald Keeley, Loren Fox, and Ronald Pronchick, Dennis Montgomery was piano accompanist.

A medley of famous marches was presented by a quartet of two trumpets and two drums. Taking part were Ricky Kochel and Dennis Miller, trumpets and Robert Oberholtzer and Barton Fox on the drums.

Other numbers presented between acts by the boys were Barry Runyan, Dennis Montgomery and John Snyder, piano solos; Barton Fox, drum solo; Earl Weaver 3d, accompanied group singing at the piano.

Opening ceremony was presented by member of den 3. Guide-on was Charles Boldaz; sergeant was Vaughan Fitch; guards were Craig Roussey and John Snyder; flag bearers, Matthew Williams and Jay Craven; honor guards, Billy Craven, Craig Buckwalter and Eugene Hatfield. Members of den 5 led by Roger Shambough gave the promise and law of the pack.

Annie Reitnauer Leaves Hospital For Lonely Home

Annie Reitnauer was discharged from Pottstown hospital Monday less than 24 hours after her husband Willie died there.

Described Sunday as "too shocked to realize" her husband was dead, she was found well enough to return home Monday morning.

She was admitted to the hospital May 23 suffering from a heart attack and pneumonia. Her husband was admitted Sunday after being stricken at his home in Boyertown RD 1. He died shortly after being admitted.

The elderly couple were preparing to occupy a new home that neighbors had built for them. Then Mrs. Reitnauer fell ill.

MR. REITNAUER, in her absence had moved into the home on the Church Hill-Landis Store road, to start "getting things ready for when Annie comes back."

The inseparable couple had made a living off the land for years. A little over a month ago part of their house collapsed.

Neighbors, when they learned the pair had lived without plumbing or electricity, or at times suffient food, built them a trim cottage not far from the original dwelling.

Mr. Reitnauer was a native of Esbach, son of the late Daniel and Sarah (Adolph) Reitnauer.

BESIDES his wife he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Kitie Arndt, who is a guest at Styer Convalescent home, Pennsburg.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 2 p.m., in St. John's United Church of Christ, Hill Church, with the Rev. George K. Ludwig, pastor of the church, officiating.

Internment will be in the adjoining cemetery in charge of the L. W. Ott Funeral home, 111 North Reading avenue, Boyertown.

Infant's Grave Not Forgotten

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The grave of an infant at Riverview Cemetery was covered with floral offerings Monday in a generous response to his mother's request that someone place a flower or two there on Memorial Day.

There were roses, peonies, snapdragons, lilies, gladiola and pansies. By mid day, visitors could barely read the headstone of the grave of the son of Capt. and Mrs. John I. White of Honolulu, Hawaii.

In turn, Mrs. White placed flowers on the grave of a Virginia Marine in Hawaii's Punchbowl National Cemetery. Pfc. William W. McClintic Jr., whose parents live at Farmville, was killed in action March 4, 1945 during the 5th Marine Division's invasion of Iwo Jima. He was 19.

Mrs. White suggested an exchange of floral tributes in a letter to the Richmond Times-Dispatch.

"God grant that never again in the night of Memorial Day that I shall awaken in tears—from a dream of my little boy saying, 'Mother did you forget me today?'—but I did not," she wrote.

Her son was born here Oct. 1, 1947, and was buried the next day. The Whites moved to Honolulu in 1950. Mrs. White said she first thought of writing the letter a year ago."

Mrs. White wrote that she would be happy to visit the grave of any member of a Richmond family buried in Punchbowl National Cemetery, and would leave flowers there.

Veteran Movie Actor Is Reported Dead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The death of Edward Brophy, 65, veteran movie character actor, was reported Monday.

Private funeral services will be held Tuesday. The cause of death was not announced.

His brother, Thomas, said he had died while watching a prize-fight on television last Friday.

Active in pictures since the early days of the movie industry, Brophy appeared in the original "Thin Man" with William Powell and Myrna Loy, "The Last Hurrah," "A Slight Case of Murder," "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi' and "It Happened on Fifth Avenue."

His wife, Ann, and another brother, John, survive.

Sophia Loren Offers $56,000 Reward For Recovery of Stolen Jewel Trove

LONDON (AP)—Sophia Loren posted a $56,000 reward Monday night for recovery of a jewel collection stolen from her bedroom Saturday night.

While Scotland Yard combed the underworld and watched seaports and airfields, the Italian movie queen disclosed that much of the collection, which she valued at a half-million dollars, was uninsured.

She told a news conference she had intended to take out insurance coverage Monday.

The chief clue was the discovery of her black-and-gold jewel case floating in the River Thames. It held two brooches, one with the name "Sophia" in jewels and the other shaped like an orchid. Neither piece was of major value.

The case was found about 20 miles from the scene of the robbery—an English country mansion where Miss Loren is living while she stars in a film, "The Millionairess."

SOPHIA LOREN

Elstree Studios invited her to take the day off, but she said she'd feel better working.

* * *

The schedule called for a comedy sequence.

It was a scene where Miss Loren falls in the Thames and later dries herself out at a fish shop.

"It was a beautiful effort," said the film's producer, Pierre Rouve." I still don't know how she pulled herself together."

Her hair was still moist from her dunking when she called the news conference and announced the reward.

Miss Loren suggested the robbery, staged with the help of a ladder, had been carried out by someone who knew the mansion well.

"They must have been watching for a whole week," she said.

She explained that each piece of her collection symbolized a step forward in her career from poverty in the slums of Naples, Italy, to wealth and world renown.

She said she had bought some of the jewelry herself and many pieces had been given to her by her husband, movie producer Carlo Ponti. The robbery came while she was out meeting Ponti at London Airport.

Scotland Yard was working on two theories. One was that the case had been flung from an ocean-bound ship. The other was that thieves had intended the case as a decoy while they disposed of the gems somewhere in Britain.

Detectives are looking for links with thefts from Gregory Peck recently and from Lauren Bacall a year ago.

Can door-to-door salesmen prescribe?
We mean prescribe medications for your health. Of course not. Only physicians are professionally qualified to do this. And only registered pharmacists are professionally qualified to dispense these prescriptions for your use. These are facts of law and medical ethics—designed for the protection of your health. So before you buy any vitamins or other medicinal preparations from a door-to-door salesman, ask him to wait while you call your physician or your pharmacist. He probably won't.

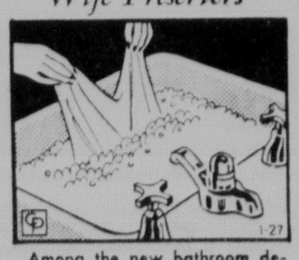
Wife Preservers



Among the new bathroom designs is an extra basin the size of a kitchen sink. Not only is this useful for rinsing out large lingerie pieces and drip-dry blouses, but it is sizeable enough to bathe a baby.

LEARN TO TYPE

There are many benefits

Basic typing ability can be mastered by teen-agers within a few weeks. And yet this skill, so easily acquired, will prove useful in work and pleasure throughout life. Indeed, typing is almost as essential today as the ability to drive a car. You will agree that such skills should be learned early in life.

Home-Made Scaffold Collapses At Indianapolis, Killing Two

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A home-made 30-foot scaffold loaded with dozens of race fans toppled Monday and hurled them screaming onto people below. Two men in the tangled mass died of broken necks.

At least 50 persons were injured, three seriously.

The aluminum tower fell during the parade lap just before the 44th annual 500-mile race got under way at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The scaffold was one of many temporary stands erected privately for the use of fans who did not buy grandstand seats. It was on a truck.

The injured were rushed to the speedway hospital tent, where the situation was so hectic that reporters were pressed into service to move cots.

The dead were Fred H. Linder, 36, Indianapolis; and William Craig, 37, Zionsville, Ind.

Wilbur Shortridge of Indianapolis said Linder, his son-in-law, had leased the scaffold and guyed it to a two-ton flatbed truck.

Persons on the lower tiers said they paid $5 for their seats; those on the upper tiers said they paid $10. Regular grandstand seats are available for about the same prices.

There may have been more than 100 persons on the scaffold.

Don Petty of Detroit, one of its occupants, estimated there were 12 rows of 12 persons each in tiers.

As the spectators craned forward to watch the parade lap, the scaffold fell slowly off its truck base like a child's overbalanced plaything and went down with a crash. Some of its occupants were flung across a fence onto a broad strip of grass bordering the track.

Paul Brown, 43, Fostoria, Ohio, who was on one corner of the scaffold, said: "The people I felt sorry for were on the ground under us. After we fell, we were packed in so tight we couldn't move an arm or leg."

Nick Longworth, 30, a photographer for the Fort Wayne (Ind.) News-Sentinel, was covering the race with his brother, Richard, from directly in front of the tower.

"My brother stood up and said, 'Oh, my God! Watch out!' I turned around," Longworth said, and the whole scaffold, people and all, fell right toward me."

JIM RATHMANN

THOMSON 6TH LED NEAR END OF 1ST HALF

Winner Sets New Record Of 138.768 mph in 44th Race

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Jim Rathmann, a second-place finisher three times, outfought defending champion Rodger Ward in a hub-to-hub duel for the last 250 miles Monday and roared in with a record-smashing triumph in the 500-mile speedway race.

"Bridesmaid" Rathmann finished second in 1952, 1957 and 1959. He finally won in his 11th speedway start, gunning out a record 138.768 mile-an-hour average.

More than 200,000 fans saw the 200-lap grind. Many of them didn't know a homemade scaffold stand collapsed on the back side of the track at the start of the race, killing two men and injuring about 50 other spectators.

Rathmann's speed cracked the mark of 135.857 set last year by Ward, who slackened because of a weakening tire in the last 7½ miles after one of the most spectacular battles for the lead in the motor classic's 44-year history.

Only 16 of the 33 starting cars were running at the finish.

Rathmann won by less than 13 seconds over Ward, whose 138.632 m.p.h. clocking also topped the former record.

The crowd jammed around the sun-drenched 2½-mile "Brickyard" grew more and more tense as first Rathmann, 31, from Miami, Fla., and then Ward, 39, from Indianapolis, nudged ahead of each other by a few car lengths.

The lead in this second closest race in speedway history changed hands 29 times, most of the swapping coming between Rathmann and Ward.

But in the end, it was Rathmann's pale blue Ken-Paul Special which moved in front for keeps with 7½ miles remaining. It was at this point that Ward had to let up on the throttle because his right front tire was dangerously worn. He said he'd had to drive too fast to catch up after a pit stop during which his engine stalled, costing vital seconds.

The only tighter race was in 1937, when Wilbur Shaw beat Ralph Hepburn by 2.15 seconds. The most the lead ever changed hands before was 17 times in the 1958 race.

Paul Goldsmith, St. Clair Shores, Mich., was third in the race which escaped serious mishaps although there were several close calls. Fourth was Don Branson, Champaign, Ill., and fifth went to veteran Eddie Johnson, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.

Two of the three former champions had cars that failed—Troy Ruttman (1952), who had to quit after leading early in the race, and Jimmy Bryan (1958), who pulled out after 390 miles.

What actually killed Ward's hopes for a second successive vic-

Bally Ache Fights Off Late Surge By Tompion to Win Jersey Derby

CAMDEN, N. J., (AP) — Bally Ache, the $2,500 bargain basement colt, won the $122,330 Jersey derby at Garden State park Monday moving another length toward the 1960 three-year-old championship.

The Turfland Farm's brown son of Ballydam outgamed C. V. Whitney's Tompion by a neck in a stirring duel from the top of the stretch.

Bally Ache, winner of the Preakness and second in the Kentucky Derby, came from the gate in his usual lightning fashion and led all the way although Tompion came within a whisker of heading him as the field of six turned for home.

Celtic Ash was third five lengths off Tompion with Venetian Way, Kentucky Derby winner, a badly beaten fourth. King Ranch's Encanto finished fifth and Bourbon Prince, 20 length victor here last week, was sixth and last.

BALLY ACHE, 3-5 favorite with the record crowd of 50,200 on this cloudy Memorial Day, was timed in 1:49 for the mile and a furlong over a sloppy track, and returned $3.40, $2.40 and $2.20. Tompion paid $3.60 and $2.20 and Celtic Ash $2.20.

Bally Ache, purchased by a six man syndicate on May 14, for $1,250,000, was half a length in front of Tompion with Encanto third and Venetian Way dropping off the pace to fifth as the field flashed through the first quarter mile.

From here to the finish it was a two horse race as John Rotz, substituting for Willie Shoemaker aboard Tompion, kept the pressure on Bally Ache, who was running in an important race for the fifth straight week.

Bally Ache, winner of 14 races in his two year career and only once out of the money in 27 starts, led by half a length after half a mile.

HOMERS TAKE NIGHTCAP WIN FOR MAUCHMEN

Cincy Captures Opener After 10-Inning Struggle

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies resorted to home runs to defeat Cincinnati 6-1 in the nightcap of a doubleheader Monday for their first victory in eight games.

Gus Bell sent Vada Pinson home on a single in the 10th inning of the opener to give the Reds a 5-4 victory.

Bobby DelGreco and Harry Anderson hit solo home runs and catcher Clay Dalrymple connected with Alvin Dark on base in the fifth inning as the Phils routed starter Don Newcombe. The Phillies scored an additional run in the inning on a single, a wild pitch by Joe Nuxhall, Newcombe's successor, and a triple by Dark.

Willie Jones homered in the ninth for Cincinnati's lone run.

Until Jones blasted his home run, winner John Buzhardt had a five-hit shutout. It was his first victory in four decisions. Newcombe now is 3-2.

Meanwhile the Phillies had 16 hits and left 12 men stranded on the bases. They scored their first run on a two-bagger by Tony Taylor and a single by Tony Curry.

In the first game, with two down in the top of the 10th, Pinson singled and stole second to set up the winning run. Bob Grim came on to strike out the side in the Phillies half of the 10th.

Curry tripled home Callison in the first inning to open the scoring. Cincinnati picked up two unearned runs in the second and got two more in the third on Bell's double. Jerry Lynch's triple and a single by Bailey.

Saints Host Eagles Nine Today At 3:30

St. Pius X' baseballers will host Bishop Shanaman of West Chester in their semi-windup Suburban Catholic league game at Memorial park this afternoon.

The Keim streeters are seeking their fourth win of the year, and their second in a row over the Eagles from Chester county.

If the charges of Coach Jimmy Mich pull off a win today, it will be their first on friendly soil. All other successes—over the Eagles, St. Katherine's and St. Matthew's—have come on the road.

Steve "Butch" Marcheski, who started against Lansdale Catholic but left after two-thirds of an inning, is the likely choice today.

The Saints will also be seeking to bounce back from their second straight loss to Lansdale, which came on Paul Goetter's no-hit pitching job.

Carter Resigns As Phils Coach For Poor Health

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — Dick Carter resigned Monday as a coach of the Philadelphia Phillies on the advice of physicians.

Carter, 43, had high blood pressure and recently was afflicted with spells of dizziness.

General manager John Quinn announced the signing of Harry (Peanuts) Lowry, a former outfielder with the Phillies, Chicago Cubs and St. Louis, to replace Carter.

Quinn said he received permission from the Chicago White Sox to deal with Lowrey, who has been managing a White Sox farm club at Idaho Falls in the Class C Pioneer league.

Carter is a native Philadelphian who was regarded an expert in developing young players.

Giants Lose Tie for National Lead On Twinbill Split With Chicago '9'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Mays flew home from first on a single by Willie McCovey Monday to give the San Francisco Giants a 5-4 victory over Chicago, after the Cubs tied the game in the ninth. The Cubs won the opener of the doubleheader 2-1.

Mays, who stole three bases in the two games and hit a two-run homer in the third inning took off like a shot when McCovey's ball headed for right field and slid home safely as Cub second baseman Jerry Kindall's relay throw was wild.

Mays had started the inning with a walk off Seth Morehead, fifth Cub pitcher.

The split dropped the Giants into second place, one-half game behind Pittsburgh. The Pirates beat Milwaukee in the first of their Memorial Day twin bill but were rained out in the nightcap.

Chicago tied it at 4 after Jim Hegan hit his first homer of the year in the eighth, a two run job off Bud Byerly. Bob Wills made it 4-all with a solo ninth inning homer off Billy Loes.

Bill White Lashes Two Home Runs As Cards Throttle Dodgers, 15-3

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bill White belted two homers and drove in six runs for the St. Louis Cardinals Monday night as they clobbered the Los Angeles Dodgers 15-3 before 37,082 fans at Memorial Coliseum.

Right-hander Ernie Broglio, who drove in three runs with two singles, set the Dodgers down on four hits and picked up his second victory in three decisions.

Rookie second baseman Julien Javier also hit a homer for the Cards with the bases empty, and Duke Snider got one for the Dodgers with no one on.

Javier's was the first of his major league career, while Snider's was his 359th. The Duke is now tied with Johnny Mize for ninth place in the all-time major league home run ranking. Among National Leaguers, only Mel Ott and Stan Musial rank above Snider.

The Cardinals, who had won only two of their previous 17 games on the road, pulled to within one-half game of fifth-place Los Angeles with the victory.

Beatty's Mile 8th All-Time Best

NEW YORK, (AP)—In running the mile in 3:58 Saturday night for an American citizens' record, slender Jim Beatty not only broke the four-minute mark for the first time but took over eighth place among the great milers of all time.

Herb Elliott of Australia holds the World record of 3:54.5. If Elliott had been fit to run against Beatty, Dyrol Burelson of Oregon and Laszlo Tabori, the Hungarian refugee, in the California Relays' mile Saturday, the winning time might have been close to the World record.

Elliott had to withdraw before the race at Modesto, Calif., because of a pulled tendon in his right knee.

Burelson, who already has a 3:58.6 clocking to his credit, was second in 3:59.2 with Tabori third in exactly 4 minutes.

TWENTY-FOUR milers have run the mile in less than four minutes a total of 58 times. Beatty, Burelson and Don Bowden (3:58.7), a California graduate, are the only Americans who have beaten four minutes.

England's Roger Bannister, the first man to break the four-minute barrier with his memorable 3:59.4 at Oxford, England, May 6, 1954, no longer rates in the top 10. The retired Briton's fastest mile was 3:58.8. Slowest time in the top 10 is 3:58.5.

Despite his outstanding mile, the 25-year-old, 128-pound Beatty may concentrate on the 5000 meters (3 miles, 188 yards) run for the Olympic trials. The former North Carolina runner works for an aircraft company at Sunnyvale, Calif., and runs in the colors of the Santa Clara Valley Youth village team.

Here are the ten fastest milers plus the times of Americans who have broken four minutes:

Herb Elliott, Australia, 3:54.5.
Mervyn Lincoln, Australia, 3:55.9.
Siegfried Valentin, East Germany, 3:56.5.
Derek Ibbotson, Britain, 3:57.2.
Ron Delany, Ireland, 3:57.5.
Murray Halberg, New Zealand, 3:57.5.
John Landy, Australia, 3:57.9.
Jim Beatty, United States, 3:58.0.
Albert Thomas, Australia, 3:58.2.
Dan Waern, Sweden, 3:58.5.
Dyrol Burleson, United States, 3:58.6.
Don Bowden, United States, 3:58.7.

FACE STIFLES BRAVES RALLY FOR BUCS' WIN

Rain Cancels Out Second Game After 8-3 Pirate Nod

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates trimmed the Milwaukee Braves 8-3 Monday and took sole possession of first place in the National League.

The victory, combined with San Francisco's split of a doubleheader with Chicago, dumped the Giants into second place, a half game behind Pittsburgh. The Pirates and Giants had been tied for first.

The Pirates, whose scheduled second game with the Braves was rained out, picked up their victory behind the shutout pitching of Harvey Haddix over the first eight innings and a fine relief performance by Elroy Face.

Haddix had shut out the Braves for 8 1-3 innings on five hits until an error by Don Hoak opened the door for a three-run Milwaukee rally. Face replaced Haddix after Mel Roach doubled and got Johnny Logan and Del Crandall on pop flies to retire the side.

The Pirates now have gone through 10 straight games without a pitcher working the distance and only one has hurled nine innings in the last 15 games.

A single by Haddix, a two-base error by Billy Bruton, a single by Groat and a double by Roberto Clemente accounted for two more Pirate runs in the sixth.

Boyertown Nine Cards Workouts Tomorrow Night

The Boyertown American Legion baseball team will open defense of its Berks county league championship this weekend in a series with Shillington.

The Bears will host the Blue Sox at Gabelsville Saturday and return the call Sunday.

Manager Carl Kolanko has also called practices for tomorrow evening at 5:45, and again Friday at 6 o'clock. Uniforms will be distributed after the Friday workout.

The Boyertown team is still seeking candidates, and invites all boys in the area from Emmaus to Mount Penn who wish to play, to attend the workouts.

* * *

DUE TO the proximity of the season opener, Kolanko would like to have as many hands on hand as possible, in order to pick an opening day lineup.

At a meeting of team officials Monday afternoon, Carroll "Ham" Weller was named third base coach and Steve Yura was named business manager.

The Bears are two-time winners of the Berks league title and have played in the State championship tournament each of the last two seasons.

Several positions are open on the team however, due to "graduation" of several key players, including the entire infield and batteries.

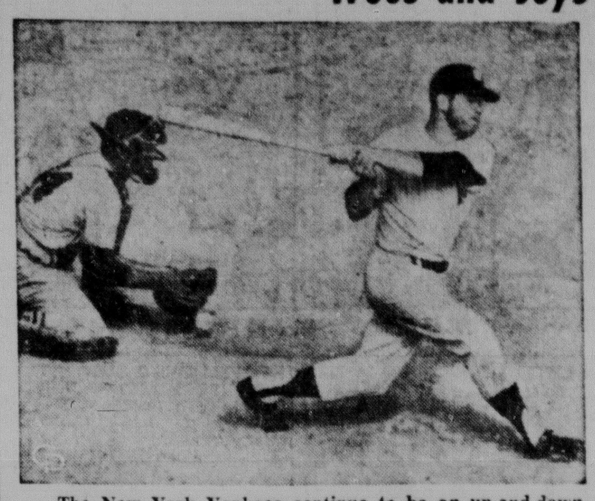
Woes and Joys of the Yankees



The New York Yankees continue to be an up-and-down team in the American league pennant race, and one of the reasons is the woeful slump of Mickey Mantle, still bothered with a bad knee, seen here striking out against Washington Senators. In right photo Tony Kubek, center, who has played several positions in past seasons, displays his joy at nailing down shortstop position by throwing a batch of gloves in the air as Gil McDougald (left) and Bobby Richardson (right) look on.

BUCS' STUART BENCHED FOR NOT HITTING

Too Much Fielding Work, Laments Pirate Strongman

PITTSBURGH, (AP) — Dick Stuart, Pittsburgh's slugging first baseman benched at times last year because of weak fielding, is riding the bench for the first time this season because of his hitting.

"Maybe I put too much time on my fielding and not enough on my hitting," the power hitter of the 1959 Pirates said as he prepared to sit on the bench.

"I can't explain what's wrong," Stuart said. "I've been swinging like I usually do, but I just got off to a slow start. I can't hit the ball good.

"It seems like when I do hit the ball hard, someone's always there. Everyone is playing me right every time."

"But," Stuart added, "I've looked bad on a lot of pitches."

THE BIG Pirate first baseman has batted 141 times and is hitting .248 with only two home runs. In the same number of bats in 1959, Stuart was hitting .279 and had hit 10 home runs. He finished the season at .297 and 28 homers.

"I'm quite disappointed in myself with my home-run total," Stuart offered. "I've gotten off to a slow start before, but I haven't gone this long without many home runs. I hit plenty of balls good enough for home runs, but they're not high enough."

Pirate manager Danny Murtaugh benched Stuart last Wednesday. He was to be there again Friday night, but the game with Philadelphia was rained out.

"I hope I'm not out too long," he commented. "I hate to sit on the bench. But one time last year after I was benched, I came back to hit .420 or .430 and 10 home runs in one month. I hope it can happen again."

Stuart has been almost as erratic in the other half of his play—this in the field. Last year he was not known for his adeptness around the first-base bag. But some hard work has begun to pay off.

"I'm just getting used to the position," he said. "I feel more confident at first now. Of course, I did do a lot of work on it this Spring."

Then, he philosophized again: "Maybe that's the trouble."

Steelers' Practice Canceled for Today

The practice scheduled for the Pottstown Steelers American Legion team today, has been canceled by manager Pat Sundstrom.

The team will practice Thursday instead at 6 o'clock. All players are requested to attend at that time on Enterprise field, Fifth and Manatawny streets.

Berra's HR Gives Yanks Split With Washington

NEW YORK (AP)—Yogi Berra's two-run home run in the eighth inning gave the New York Yankees a 3-2 victory over Washington in the second game Monday after Bob Allison paced the Senators to a 2-1 decision in the opener.

The Yanks appeared to be headed toward a second straight 2-1 defeat until Berra slammed his fifth homer of the season into the lower right field seats following a walk to Mickey Mantle. Roger Maris' 11th homer in the fourth accounted for the other run off Loser Pedro Ramos.

Bobby Shantz, who took over for Ralph Terry at the start of the eighth, received credit for his first victory. In the ninth, the Senators had men on first and second with two out before Mantle made a running catch of Julio Becquer's fly ball.

The Senators hopped on Terry for a run in the first inning on Billy Gardner's single, a walk and Harmon Killebrew's scoring single. They added another in the third when Allison led off with a triple to left and scored while Bobby Richardson threw out Lenny Green.

New York wasted most of its 10 hits and left 12 men on base in the first game in which Allison drove in both of Washington's runs with his third homer in the sixth and a single, scoring pinch runner Green in the eighth. Allison, rookie of the year in 1959, also robbed Elston Howard of a potential homer with a great one-handed catch in the second inning.

Chuck Stobbs needed relief help from Tex Clevenger in the seventh inning to save his second victory. Art Ditmar lost his second.

Coach Ralph Houk managed the Yankees in both games in the absence, due to illness, of Casey Stengel.

The crowd of 42,947, the largest of the year at Yankee Stadium, saw the holiday games.

Mantle 'Mauled' By Youthful Mob

NEW YORK (AP)—Xrays of Mickey Mantle's jaw were scheduled Monday night after the New York Yankee center fielder was mobbed, mauled and belted on the chin by youngsters and teen-agers who broke out onto the field after the Memorial Day doubleheader with Washington.

The youngsters converged on the high-priced Yankee star almost immediately after he hauled in a fly by Julio Becquer for the final out.

The mob, described by a Yankee spokesman as "completely uncontrollable," grabbed Mantle's cap and mauled him as he attempted to make his way to the dugout.

Mantle finally stiff-armed his way through the crowd, taking blows on the face and belting back.

Ice packs were applied in the clubhouse, but Mantle had difficulty moving his jaw.

Four City Loop Changes Listed

The City softball league swings back into action today with the Whiz Kids meeting league co-leader Sunset Pharmacy at Memorial park.

The game was originally scheduled tomorrow, but a switch was made with today's game, originally to pit Minneapolis-Honeywell with Diamond Glass.

Three more such changes have been made during the next two weeks, all involving Minneapolis-Honeywell, whose work schedule would have necessitated some forfeits had not the changes been made.

Thursday's game, with Minneapolis-Honeywell slated to meet Holy Trinity, has been switched with the Friday tilt involving co-leader C & K and the Whiz Kids.

Switches have been made involving the games of next Tuesday and Wednesday, and Thursday and Friday tilts.

The Tuesday game was to involve Honeywell and Whiz Kids. It will be played Wednesday, with Sunset Pharmacy meeting Holy Trinity on Tuesday.

Hatfield Racing Bill Rained Out

HATFIELD—The rains came down again Monday night, and canceled out the Hatfield speedway's big Memorial day racing event.

It was the third successive rainout on the Hatfield oval. The program was to have been a four-part racing bill that included the USAC-ARDC midgets, the modified and strictly stocks and a destruction derby.

Barring rain, racing will resume on the Hatfield strip Saturday night with another stock car show, and on Sunday night the USAC-ARDC midgets will return for the George Fonder Memorial.

The Fonder Memorial, inaugurated this year, is being run in honor of the drive from Doylestown who was killed on the half-mile oval two years ago.

KAYCEE TAKES DOUBLE BILL FROM DETROIT

Homers Win 8-2 Final After 4-Hour 7-6 Opener

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Whitey Herzog homered with two aboard and Marv Throneberry with the bases loaded Monday to give the Kansas City Athletics an 8-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the second game of a doubleheader. The A's won the 4-hour first game 7-6 on Hank Foiles' pinch single with two out in the 11th inning.

Both home runs were off starter and loser Paul Foytack, who went eight and one-third innings. Herzog hit the ball over the right field fence in the sixth inning after Bill Tuttle had singled and Jerry Lumpe had walked. It was his fifth round-tripper. Throneberry connected in the eighth after Lumpe and Norm Siebern had singled and Herzog had walked.

'It's Nice to Finally Be a Bride,' Asserts '500' Winner Jim Rathmann

INDIANAPOLIS, (AP) — "It's sure nice to finally be a bride instead of a bridesmaid," yelled 31 year old Jim Rathmann Monday as he pulled his sky-blue Ken-Paul Special into victory lane as winner of the 1960 Memorial day race.

Rathmann, who finished second in three 500s, said his car probably wouldn't have lasted another two laps.

"The rubber was gone from the right rear tire," he said.

Jim's pretty blonde wife, Kay, 25, agreed with him "it's nice to finally be a bride." She shoved her way through the throng of newsmen and well-wishers, shouting: "Let me see my husband!"

* * *

WITH HIS wife in one arm and the traditional quart of milk in his hand, Rathmann sat in the car almost dazed, deafened by the constant roar of engines.

"I'm sorry I can't hear you," he kept repeating.

In his garage, with a cold beer in his hand, Jim was more talkative.

"I kept thinking, 'when are those guys going to run out of steam?' But they never did," Rathmann said of Rodger Ward and other drivers who chased him home.

Ward dueled with Rathmann most of the race.

"I was surprised Ward was going so fast," Rathmann said. "His car was faster than mine and he could pass me whenever he wanted to. I had to make up for it on the turns and by cutting in front of traffic.

"I knew my tires were bad and I was just wondering when they would give out."

Ward was in the same trouble. In the last 50 miles, the lead changed hands nine times and the crowd roared each time they came screaming down the stretch in front of the main grandstand.

The quiet-spoken, hard-driving Rathmann moved into the front for the first time on the 25th lap. Before that, pole driver Eddie Sachs, later forced out of the race, Ward, and Ruttman took turns setting the blistering pace which broke a record virtually every lap.

Johnny Thomson, Boyertown, Pa., also held the lead from the 86th through the 95th laps and was a hot pursuer of Rathmann and Ward until he had to make his fourth pit stop at the 435-mile mark.

The unofficial finish list also included Thomson, sixth; rookie Lloyd Ruby, Houston, Tex., seventh; Bob Veith, Oakland, Calif., eighth; Bud Tingelstad, Dayton, Ohio, ninth, and Bob Christie, Grants Pass, Ore., tenth.

Rookie Jim Hurtubise, Lennox, Calif., who set four-lap and one-lap qualifying records, ran in hard luck. He moved up from 23rd position to fifth before he was forced out at 470 miles with a broken piston.

Rathmann led 90 laps and Ward 59, indicative of the way they dominated this grueling contest, which will pay off more than $100,000 to Rathmann's winning car. The official split of a record purse of approximately $350,000 will be made Tuesday night at a victory dinner.

The yellow caution light flashed four times, signifying trouble, and the field had to hold its position a total of 29 minutes, seven seconds. All this occurred in the race.

The only casualty was Eddie Russo, veteran driver from Indianapolis, whose car hooked up on the southeast wall after a spin on the 88th lap. Russo suffered a concussion and scalp lacerations, requiring hospital treatment.

Almost simultaneously, Chuck Stevenson, Garden Grove, Calif., and Wayne Weiller, Phoenix, Ariz., also spun or skidded on the southeast turn but escaped unhurt.

Duane Carter of Indianapolis spun on the 44th lap without incident, but Don Branson, Champaign, Ill., almost encountered disaster when his car careened against the pit retaining wall and narrowly missed bouncing across the parkway onto the main track.

Tribe Belts Chisox Starting Hurlers Enroute to 4-1, 9-4 Twinbill Sweep

CHICAGO (AP) — The second-place Cleveland Indians knocked out Chicago White Sox starting pitchers with big innings in each game Monday to sweep a doubleheader 4-1 and 9-4 before 45,731 fans, largest Comiskey Park crowd of the season.

Early Wynn was shelled in the sixth of the opener as Cleveland bunched all of its runs in backing 23-year-old Jim Perry to his first victory over the Sox in more than a year.

Bob Shaw was victimized in a six-run fourth of the nightcap as Barry Latman, the ex-White Sox hurler, bagged his first victory although being kayoed in a three-run eighth.

The losses left Wynn, the majors winningest pitcher of 1959 at 22 victories, a 2-3 mark, and Shaw, the league's sophomore sensation of 1959 with 18 victories, with 4-4. The Sox, knocked out of third place, have gotten only seven complete games out of their pitchers so far.

Throwing errors by third baseman Gene Freese figured in both of Cleveland's big frames. In the first, his low throw trying to get Vic Power at first base, loaded the sacks. Russ Nixon's single was good for two runs and a single by Bubba Phillips and a sacrifice bunt by Perry accounted for the other two.

Bosox Fight Back At Lofty Orioles With 12-3 Nightcap Win, Gain Split

BALTIMORE (AP)—The slumping Boston Red Sox, tired of playing the role of patsy for the Baltimore Orioles, whacked the league leaders 12-3 in the second game of a doubleheader Monday after the Orioles won the opener 7-5 for their eighth straight victory over Boston.

Boston's 15 - hit attack in the nightcap off loser Arnie Portocarrero and Gordon Jones included homers by Haywood Sullivan, Gene Stephens and Gary Geiger. Frank Malzone had four hits as all Red Sox starters hit safely and eight players batted in runs.

Lefty Ted Bowsfield, making his first start of the season, was credited with the victory although he needed help from relief pitcher Mike Fornieles.

Rookie Chuck Estrada and Hoyt Wilhelm held the Sox to five hits in the opener as Baltimore extended its winning streak to four.

Boston ended a disastrous road trip with a 3-11 record which reportedly has left Manager Billy Jurges' job hanging by a thread.

The Orioles, who have won 23 out of 33, made two runs and three of their seven hits in the eighth inning of the second game. Bowsfield, who struck out eight, left with the bases loaded and Brooks Robinson hit a two-run single off Fornieles.

The Red Sox took a two-run lead in the first inning of the opener. But the Orioles, cheered on by a crowd of 31,620, came back with four runs in the bottom of the inning.

Gene Woodling homered after Al Pilarcik singled. Then after walks to Jim Gentile and Clint Courtney, Jack Brandt belted a triple.

Graduation Exercises Set For Tonight

A class of 227 pupils of Boyertown Area High school will receive diplomas during commencement exercises this evening at 8 o'clock in the Senior High school gymnasium.

Six of the honor graduates will speak on the commencement theme "A Challenge for all Americans." The pupils and their topics are: "All of a Sudden," by Angeline M. Matthews; "Learn to Live," by Gwendolyn L. Ott; "Elbow Room, Please," by Patricia M. Haas; "The Price to Pay," by David M. Latshaw; "Why on Earth," by Barbara E. Herb, and "Success or Failure?", by Rosanne D. Leidy.

The list of honor graduates also include: George Barkasi, Bonita Ann Bauer, Terence L. Grow and J. Robert Kunkle.

The program will begin with a prelude of music by the Boyertown Senior High school band, under the direction of Arlen R. Saylor. The invocation by the Rev. Richard L. Miller, assistant pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Boyertown, will precede the presentation of diplomas by Harry I. Gilbert, Senior High school principal.

Officers of the class of 1960 are: president, J. Robert Kunkle; vice president, Robert G. Schaeffer; secretary, Madelyn E. Bower; treasurer, Daniel G Ritter.

LEAGUE PLANS MUSIC SHOW

Fireworks Display To Highlight Event

Musical Milestones of 1960 sponsored by the Boyertown Area Schools Music league, will be on the Boyertown Area High school athletic field Saturday, June 11, at 8 p.m.

Scheduled for the night of entertainment are 29 participating groups of 1400 people. The program includes four concert bands, the Boyertown Area Junior and Senior High bands, and the Boyertown Intermediate and Elementary bands; the Boyertown Area Junior and Senior High dance bands, five color guard groups, four mixed choruses and male chorus.

A feature of the evening will be the appearance of the prettiest girls in the Boyertown area, after which outstanding dancers, champion twirlers and organ music will be presented.

A huge fireworks display will be seen above two large stages which will be erected for the many entertainers, in front of which two pit orchestras will perform.

Unusual music instruments and surprise features are also included in the program, according to Mrs. Dorothea Wise, coordinator.

FA 3-3000 is the number for news tips.

LADIES CLUB PLANS JUNE PROGRAMS

Missionary to Speak Wednesday on Africa

OFFICER ELECTIONS SET FOR NEXT WEEK

The United Lutheran Church Women of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Boyertown, have two special programs scheduled for the month of June.

Alliene DeChant of Kutztown has been choosen by the ULCW to give a talk in connection with the foreign mission theme "Africa." Miss DeChant will speak Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church, to which program the public is invited.

The missionary will describe things she saw, experience she had, and give the impressions made by the people in the countries she toured during her recent two year world trip. She will also have on display some of the curios and articles native to the various countries she visited.

The general meeting of the ULCW will be Monday in the chapel of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Boyertown, at which time officers will be elected during the business session.

The program includes the showing of slides and a talk on Hawaii, by Janet Drumheller who recently visited there, after which Patricia Haldeman will describe and model a Chinese wedding costume.

Brownie Scouts Attend Roller Skating Party

A roller skating party was attended by Brownie Scouts of troop 84, Boyertown, at Ringing Rocks park. The day's activities were completed with a cookout on the park picnic grounds.

Scouts who attended the final activities for this season were: Linda Grill, Barbara Endy, Darlene Campbell, Martha Bause, Karen Fedor, Robin Cross, Debra Spohn, JoAnn Mauger, Jeanne Webb, Carol Leh, Deborah Moyer and Barbara Weand.

The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Harry Mauger, Mildred Grill and Mrs. William J. Campbell, scout leaders. Harry Mauger and Jim Campbell also assisted.

TRUSTEES CHARGED

KEMPTEN, Germany (AP) — Two former trusties of the Nazi concentration camp at Mauthausen went on trial here Monday on charges they killed hundreds of inmates. One charge alleges that Josef Schoeps, 50, and Adolf Stumpf, 53, beat 600 Russians to death with wrenches and clubs. The trial is expected to last three weeks.

4 More Teams Will Be Added To Perkiomen Jaycee League

PENNSBURG — Mr. Paul Undercoffler, 477 Penn St., Corr., Phone OR 9-7244, Miller's News Agency, del. Phone OR 9-7467.

League team managers and assistants, along with Upper Perkiomen Junior Chamber of Commerce officials met in the Pennsburg hotel.

The meeting was in charge of Victor Moyer, head of the Jaycee Midget league which the Jaycees are sponsoring for the third straight season. Booster ticket sales and donations from merchants and various civic organizations have swelled the financial funds so that four more teams can be added to the original four teams.

This season there will be a major and minor league with some 100 completely uniformed boys from 8 to 12 years of age competing.

Play begins June 13 for the major leaguers and continues every Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The minors begin June 16 and they play every Thursday and Friday evenings. No games are scheduled for the week of July 4.

TRYOUTS FOR the Upper Perkiomen Valley boys will be Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., on the former Pennsburg High school athletic field, where all action for the Upper Perkiomen Jaycee Midget Baseball league takes place.

Besides Commissioner Moyer the following Jaycee members comprise the governing board of the league: Assistant Commissioner Nicholas Navarro; Secretary and Treasurer Donald Hoffman; Statistician and Publicity Director Fred Bieler Jr.; Minor League Commissioner Paul Moser and committee member is Ivo Henry.

The winners of the Teenage rodeo staged by the Jaycees on the high school parking lot were: Stanley Brunner, East Greenville, best of 13 participants and David Bauman and Gerald Schantz, both of East Greenville.

Dr. Stephen Roberts, headmaster of Perkiomen school for boys, has announced that class day and commencement exercises will be June 4 and 5.

THE UPPER Perkiomen Church Men and Women Bowling leagues ended their regular seasons last week at the Pennsburg bowl. It is estimated that about 250 bowlers, their wives and husbands, also guests, will attend the 24-team league banquet at 6:30 p. m., tonight in the East Greenville fire company auditorium.

Team trophies and individual trophies will be awarded. The winning combination of the Men's league was the Niantic UCC team, while the St. Paul's Lutheran team of Red Hill won the honors in the ladies' league.

The monthly meeting of the Upper Perkiomen Chamber of Commerce will be on Tuesday evening, in Shupe's restaurant, Red Hill. The regular meeting which is usually the third Tuesday of each month was postponed because of the East Greenville Borough meeting.

Carton in Driveway Contains 3 Children

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y. (AP)— Joseph Strakowski, 33, was pulling into his driveway Monday when he saw a big cardboard carton blocking his path.

He tried to push it out of the way with the bumper of his car.

He'd gone about 20 feet when his wife, sitting beside him, gasped. She heard screams coming from the box.

Strakowski stopped and ran to the box. Inside were Eugene Draper, 6, and his brother Dwight, 4, and Carl Baumgardner, 10. They had been playing in the carton.

The Draper boys were rushed to a hospital suffering severe cuts and bruises. Baumgardner was unhurt.

PRISON GUARD ADMITS DOPE SMUGGLING

thorities began investigating last week. They nabbed Sallat while he was on guard duty Sunday.

He was questioned by Warden David N. Myers and by Sgt. Francis P. Haffey and Det. Harry Crane, Jeffersonville troopers.

SALLAT, 36, quickly admitted smuggling drugs and correspondence in and out of Graterford. Warden Myers immediately suspended Sallat and turned him over to State troopers.

Sallat had a hearing before Justice of the Peace Charles Jamison in Norristown. He was charged with purveying a habit producing drug, and was sent to county jail after he couldn't produce a $2000 bail bond.

Sallat, formerly of Atlas, was a Graterford guard four years. He was a bartender and had other jobs in the coal regions prior to that.

The number and value of contraband pills sneaked into Graterford is still unknown. An investigation into that, Sallat's source of narcotics and the number of prisoners who received the drugs will continue.

Hospital Suddenly Becomes Busy Scene

The busiest people in Pottstown Monday evening were undoubtedly the staff members at Memorial hospital who administered to the needs of the five patients taken there as a result of the two car accident on Township Line road near Limerick that killed four others.

Prior to the tragic accident, however, the hospital had been relatively peaceful. No other accident cases were reported.

A spokesman at Pottstown hospital described the weekend as a "quiet" one. "People apparently had enough sense to make safety part of their holiday plans," the spokesman said.

Human interest wins money if you telephone good story material to The Mercury.

Man Wins $5 For Tip on Novel Picture

A picture oddity won first prize in news tips for Richard Ludwig, Birdsboro RD 2.

The Mercury gives cash for tips that are developed into the week's best stories or photos. Ludwig will get $5 for a 'phone call that took him less than a minute.

His humorous information was about a pair of wrens that nested in his pants. He wasn't wearing the pants, of course. His wife was hanging them on the line after a washing.

That was 12 days ago and the birds are still living in the right, front pocket of Ludwig's overalls.

News tip money is easy to win Just call The Mercury with information about things you have seen or heard, which will interest others.

Mrs. Henrietta Endy, 327 Walnut street, called The Mercury and won $3. She said the tidal wave in Japan which claimed 180 lives was near the home of her son-in-law and daughter Capt. and Mrs. Leslie Lindenmuth.

The Lindenmuths live at Misawa Air Force base, Japan. Mrs. Endy's information earned her the second news tip award

A third prize of $2 was won by Mrs. Anthony Czot, Country Club road, Limerick.

She told The Mercury about water contamination affecting 45 families at the North Star Trailer camp, Limerick.

A reporter took the little tip and developed it into a story with a background of past water pollution problems at the trailer park. The item made front page of Thursday's Mercury.

Your news tip can win a cash prize no matter what page of The Mercury it is printed on. Prizes are given for big and little stories, so be sure to call your facts to FA 3-3000.

SPACE WRECKER CLEARS THE SKIES—A push-away wrecker (right) follows a dead satellite in orbit around the moon in this artist's drawing of how outer space may some day be cleaned up. The hundreds of dead objects spinning around the earth and moon could provide a hazard to spacial navigation. To prevent this, the wrecker would come up behind the satellite and attach a nose clamp on its tail to slow the object and make it fall onto the moon or into the earth's atmosphere.

Cub Scouts Display 50-Star Flag Hand Stitched by Area Den Mothers

COLLEGEVILLE — Mrs. Donald Yerkes, corr., Phone Atlas 7-9103, Wm. Crosley, Del., Phone Hutley 9-7974

On display at the May meeting of Cub Scout pack 87, Collegeville, was the new hand-made 50-star American flag which will be raised at Valley Forge State park on Independence Day by a Hawaiian Boy Scout in special ceremonies conducted by the Valley Forge council.

Eleven Den Mothers, all members of the Collegeville Cub pack, have been stitching the flag together for several months at the home of and under the supervision of S. Louis Cornish, chairman of the flag committee.

"It was more work than we den mothers and even Cornish had anticipated", stated one of the den mothers. "It was all cut and sewed by hand even the 100 stars as you know the flag is double and is 5 feet by 8 feet."

The meeting at which the flag was displayed was Friday evening, in the auditorium of Henry K. Boyer school, Evansburg.

The pack presented "Show Boat," the theme for the month.

ON DISPLAY also was the pack scrap book which is to be sent to a Cub pack in Australia. In return the local pack is expecting to receive a scrap book from some other country. The project is a feature in the four-point program of Cubbing, to promote international good will.

William Sprouse, after many years of service, asked to be relieved of his position as advisor of the Explorer post 119 of Trappe. The troop committee expressed appreciation for his loyal service in the past and accepted his resignation with regrets and appointed Anton Mandik to replace him.

The Boy Scout troop and explorer post 119 held its May court of awards with the following members receiving advancements: Reginald Leister, advanced to Star Scout and received the music badge; James Murphy, advanced to second class; Fred Law, first aid merit badge; Louis Mandik, hiking merit badge and Walter Simmons, citizenship in the home merit badge.

Eleven members of the troop and their assistant leader, Richard Case Sr., hiked ten miles on the Horseshoe Trail. The group started at Nantmeal and hiked to French Creek park, where they camped over night and toured Hopewell Village. Scoutmaster, Orlo Hart, and James Hefelfinger Sr., set up camp for the troop and had prepared the evening meal when the hikers arrived.

'SPECULATOR' CHARMED LOCAL MEN

night. "He's getting along just fine."

WALTERS APPARENTLY got along "just fine" with the businessmen he contacted in Pottstown about his "find," also.

One Pottstonian was so taken with the elderly gentleman's promise of easy money he consented to act as chauffeur for Walters, and drove him around introducing him to prospective "clients."

Another local businessman reportedly was ready to hand $1000 over to Walters. He failed to do so only because he was detained in Philadelphia and missed a date he had made with the would-be oilman.

When and if Walters is extradited to Ohio, he will have to explain to authorities there what he did with the $3000 he took from businessmen there on similar promises before he disappeared from the area two years ago.

Fire Company Dedicates New Pumper, Building

The Upper Pottsgrove Fire company Monday conducted ceremonies housing a new $13,000 pumper and dedicating its remodeled and enlarged fire house.

Nearly 1000 persons joined in the ceremonies and refreshments which followed a half-hour parade through the township.

A total of 23 trucks from area fire companies passed in mounted review, then 20 chiefs joined to push the new pumper into the newly remodeled fire house at Route 663 and State street.

Sgt. Edward W. Mays, of the State Police Fire Marshal's office, addressed the gathering and cited the growing fire company for its advancements in a growing community.

The Upper Pottsgrove Fire company was founded 12 years ago, and the original building was occupied in 1950. The company's first truck was a 1923 model donated by the Swarthmore Fire company. Now, a 1949 tank truck backs up the new pumper

Phyllis Haring, president of the ladies auxiliary, cut the ribbon opening the expanded company headquarters, and rain then forced the remainder of the ceremonies inside..

Harvey Boughter is president of the company and Raymond Schaeffer is company fire chief.

Civic Observances Mark Memorial Day

B of the U.S. Army Reserve, and borough officials.

The parade, which included nearly 600 marchers, was termed the "biggest ever" by William C. Fraser Jr., Legion commander.

Fraser and Merritt S. Wien, VFW commander, along with Pottstown Rotary club, Jewish War Veterans and Catholic War Veterans' representatives, halted the line of march to place wreaths at monuments before the postoffice.

The Pottstown Junior and Senior High school bands and entire marching units, with the Owen J. Roberts Junior Senior High school band, provided the music for the parade and services which followed at Pottstown East End cemetery.

There, Robert C. Rhoads, of the publicity department of Freedoms' Foundation, Valley Forge, spoke on added emphasis for pledges of allegiance and loyalty oaths.

He said it would be a shame and a crime to remove oaths of loyalty from our constitution or laws, adding every true American should take pride in swearing he will uphold his nation, and forsaking organizations advocating the overthrow of the government.

"Pausing to honor our war dead," he said, "let us remember all those who have made the supreme sacrifice to preserve our freedom and heritage.

"We must keep America strong, and should be proud of forsaking subversive causes when we take an oath—just as proud as we are of saluting the flag or reciting the great works of our heritage."

* * *

THE REV. WALLACE Flood, pastor of the First Baptist church, delivered a prayer and offered the benediction. A crowd of several hundred people joined to sing the "Star Spangled Banner," "America the Beautiful," and "America."

The Spanish American War veterans lifted the flag of freedom after the sounding of assembly, and Logan's Memorial Day order was read by Charles H. Harberger, of the American Legion.

Brian Boyer, a Pottstown High school pupil, recited Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The school bands played several selections; and after wreaths were placed at a cross in the soldier's plot in memory of the dead from all wars, a volley was fired in remembrance.

Hillary Prince was chairman of the local Memorial Day activities sponsored by the veterans' organizations. The presiding officer was Wien, and Leonard Rachild was officer of the day.

The significance of the commemoration was not dimmed by a thin crowd which watched the parade and several hundred persons at the services. Officials saw no chance of record gatherings, since threatening skies and chilly temperatures kept potential spectators away.

* * *

THE PARK-going public was undaunted, however, and although far from record crowds visited Montgomery county park and French Creek State park, attendance was good.

Rain at 4 p. m. broke things up at Green Lane, where Otto Quinque, park director, reported 8180 visitors. Of this crowd, 2859 were picnickers and 397 hardy souls went swimming.

At the French Creek park, there were 1800 picnickers and from 265 to 300 bathers. An unusually large number of campers filled the premises—650.

The Catholic ceremony was held through the permission of Bishop Nicholas T. Elko, of the Greek Catholic Archdiocese.

A large gathering celebrated mass, and heard a short sermon by The Very Rev. Msgr. Macko. He mentioned the men who had given their lives in the nation's wars, and said, "These men died to preserve peace for the rest of us.

"Let us be certain their efforts are not in vain by strengthening ourselves and our nation"

THE CATHOLIC War Veterans, post 1683, was represented by a color guard headed by Hugh Kelly. The guard included: Francis Koren, William Palladino, Joseph Rudzenski, Anthony Bodizioch, John Hospador and Joseph Tascione.

The Knights of Columbus, Father Bally council, was represented by Grand Knight Charles Wilgeroth and Nicholas Hornak. Vincent Ozoroski, in charge of the event for the Catholic War Veterans, described the event as "very impressive" and added he hoped permission would be granted to make the ceremony an annual event.

The St. John's Catholic church under the direction of George Parvenski, sang responses to the mass. David Lewis recited "In Flanders Field."

LOCAL MAN ARRESTED AFTER FIRE

Charged With Drunk, Disorderly; Jailed

A Pottstown RD 2 man was arrested Sunday night a short time after fire of an undetermined origin did an estimated $3500 damage to his home on Route 100 in North Coventry township.

Edward Grepps was arrested by Norco Police Chief Charles, Wilt on a drunk and disorderly charge leveled against him by Edna Sponagle. Police said Grepps and the Sponagle woman live in the same building.

The blaze, which started in the cellar, mushroomed up through the rest of the house through partitions in the walls.

Twenty fireman from the Norco Fire company managed to bring the blaze under control within moments after they arrived on the scene shortly before 10 p.m.

Chief Wilt said the fire broke out while he was taking the Sponagle woman to the office of Justice of the Peace William Scherfel Jr., Kenilworth, to swear out a warrant for Grepps' arrest. Grepps was jailed in lieu of $500.

The State fire marshal's office is investigating the possibility of arson.
